ADULT DIVISION

In the absence of a staff leader in the division of Adult Work, the interests of this department are promoted by the Executive Secretary, Meredith Groves and the District Directors of Adults. Possibilities for a part-time staff leader have been investigated during this year and a request has been made by the Board of Education of the Conference to the Coordinating Council and the World Service and Finance Commission for consideration.

Fields of Interest: Family Life, Young Adults, Older Adults

To promote emphasis on "family-centered" churches, Dr. Edward Staples of Nashville conducted a three day seminar during February at Montavilla church, Portland. Eight churches enrolled in such a program: North Bend, Springfield, Jason Lee-Salem, Molalla, Oswego, Montavilla, Beaverton, and Lents. Other churches which might be interested in helping to pilot such a program are urged to contact Methodist Headquarters. The program begins in June. There are definite goals, procedures, and helpful counsel involved in the program. In most cases the emphasis will extend over a two-year period.

The program for Young Adults — age 21 to 35 — progresses. Last October 20-22 they held a retreat at Camp Magruder. March 20, at Fremont church, Portland, Dr. Allen Moore of Nashville conducted a seminar for leaders of this age group. Our young people comprising this group have special problems. Because for the most part they are not yet established with reference to jobs and family and because in many cases they are not able to participate in the leadership and finances of a local church as capably as others the church is tempted to overlook them. It is the purpose of the Adult Division, however, to call attention to the vital opportunity for service to this age group by the church and of their increasing capacity to lend buoyancy and enthusiasm to the programs of the local church.

Older Adults have met at various times during the year for planning and fellowship. Dr. S. Raynor Smith, who has given effective leadership to this group particularly as Dean of the Mature Years Camp for the past several years, felt it necessary to retire. The group holds profound gratitude and affection for his leadership. Miss Virginia Stafford of Nashville was resource leader for the annual camp at Magruder. The committee will meet regularly for discussion and fellowship to promote the work among older adults.

It will be noted that the Adult Department has sought the best leadership available from our denominational agencies. Increasing numbers of adults

VI. REPORTS

REPORT OF COORDINATING COUNCIL

Our various Conference Boards, Commissions and Committees come together for planning the work of the Conference under the auspices of the above Council. The spirit of cooperation so obvious to lay and ministerial membership has made possible forward strides which would have been impossible working separately. We have avoided unnecessary overlapping and responsibility has been distributed throughout all the sections of the Conference instead of the work being assigned to a very few as has often happened in past years. A spirit of enthusiastic support and optimism has prevailed during the past year and we rejoice together in all the gains made in every area of activity for our Lord.

A visit to the offices of the Council in the New Fliedner Building will acquaint you with the organizational structure, the devoted personnel, and the facilities offered to our Conference through this Council. Special thanks is given to the Reverend Meredith Groves and his alert staff for adding a most commendable year of dedicated service to all of us.

STUDY SECTION ON EDUCATION

CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF EDUCATION

At the beginning of a new quadrennium, we have established a Committee on Christian Higher Education to carry out the functions of coordinating the planning and expansion of our work in this field. The committee is broadly representative of every phase of this important program. We all wish it were possible to grant each agency its full asking in the Educational Institutions budget. It will be necessary to modify the budget when information not now available is presented at Annual Conference. Re-apportionment of the final total will be done by our executive committee.

Excellent as the various Foundation reports have been in the past, we appreciate the work of our Higher Education Committee in presenting a composite report.

We are endeavoring to have every member of the Board at work on one of its committees. One group newly established is the Long Range Planning Committee, under the Camping Commission. Here we shall attempt to work out recommended next steps in our camping expansion after careful investigation and the weighing of every available fact.

DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

Again we pay our respects to the excellent work of our coordinating council staff members. Values far beyond those revealed in their reports are being realized. To fully support their work, we recommend that Rally Day offerings be not less than 15c per church school member. Further, many churches have budgeted a goal and have paid it whether or not the offerings reached their recommended minimum. This is of great help in reaching our conference goal.

We recommend that Rally Day be scheduled for September 17, and that Willamette University Sunday be November 12, 1961.

BUDGET, DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

Rally Day Promotion	$ 350.00
Educational Supplies	350.00
News Letter	250.00
Children's Division	500.00
Youth Division	500.00

Vacation Church School training will again be planned. I received reports from 100 of our Churches to find that 9223 boys and girls attended with 171 of them in the Junior High age for the 1960 summer.

Our Laboratory School will again be held in Salem, First Church. Willamette University will serve us by providing room and board. Cost for the week will be $30, dates are June 18-23. Classes for teachers, parents and pastors will be held in these age groups: Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, Junior, and Junior High and High School. The last two will give help for morning classes as well as evening MYF counsellors. Every Church will want to send people to bring back ideas and suggestions to assist the Commission on Education in the building of a good Church School.

In addition to the classes above the TRAFCO Committee is planning for an Audio Visual Workshop under the direction of B. F. Jackson from the General Board. A number from our own Conference will be asked to take part in the Workshop with representatives from other adjoining Conferences in this endeavor.

My own work is a challenge as I try to serve Churches in their plans for building rooms for children, remodeling areas for Church School rooms, training teachers, Commission on Education meetings, and so on. Traveling the Eugene District in the Churchmanship Schools gave me an opportunity to meet and talk with many who are responsible for the Christian Education program of children in the local Church. I do quite a bit of traveling to local Churches to help in their programs. Concentrating on one Church and their needs seems to me to serve them in the best way. However, this cannot be done for every Church each year.

Plans for future training this coming year include leadership schools, observation schools in some other areas than have been included earlier, workshops for activities, and visits to local Churches.

Camps for Juniors number nine this year. Training counsellors for them is another part of our work. All leaders are volunteers except nurse and lifeguard at Magruder. Local Churches need to recruit counsellors to assist in this program if we are to take care of the large number of Juniors wanting to attend camp.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. J. E. Sayre
Conference Director of Children's Work

THE CAMP COMMISSION

This year the Camp Commission has been free enough of immediately pressing problems to take some time to evaluate our present position and to look ahead toward our possible future.

We are running our three camp sites almost to capacity. Last year 2251 campers and counselors attended Conference sponsored camps. Also 5885 others used our facilities for a week or week-end scheduled event, many of these of Methodist groups, bringing the grand total to 8136 persons.

The two new rules that went into force last year have proven increasingly helpful. The early registration date made it easier on the office and made it possible to transfer applicants into other camps. Our deadline this year has been set even earlier at May 17th. This last year only 46 persons were unable to make transfers when the camp of their preference was filled. The rule requiring churches to furnish the name of a possible counselor for every five, or fraction of five, campers registered has been a big help in securing more and better qualified leaders.

We have been forced to increase the registration cost again another dollar. We are, thanks to the Southern Oregon people who raise money on their own for the Indian Springs caretaker, able to keep income balancing expenses. We all know that before long we will be faced with some major repair and replacement costs on our property. With this in mind we are setting aside this year fifty cents from each registration as a fund for this purpose.

Even though we are a Camp Commission we do not plan to tent too long in our conference are clarifying their ideas in the basic outlines of Christian activity among adults. Upon this responsible foundation it is hoped that future developments will come quickly.

It is recommended that this year an item of $3,600 be included in the Conference Budget as salary of a part time director of adult work.

Robert L. Benefiel
Conference Secretary

YOUTH PROGRAM

There continues to be an urgent need for adults concerned enough to take time to counsel and teach the youth of our Churches. Wherever Pastors and laymen pause to consider the needs of youth, the purposes of Church youth work and the training and organization needed to be effective, a dynamic youth program results. Wherever they fail to do this, there is no program in the Church for youth.

The Conference youth theme this year was, "Day for Christian Daring." Under the excellent leadership of our President, Gordon Schnee and his thirteen fellow conference officers, the theme proved to be helpful and stimulating. The years Conference activities included summer camps with 850 youth participating, Presidents' Palaver, Fall Action Project on Moral Concerns, Fall and Spring Christian Vocations Fellowship Retreats, Career Clinic, Older Youth Fellowship Presidents' Conference, four District Youth Conference involving about 700 youth, and numerous planning and training sessions. Fellowship Footnotes now has a circulation of 3000.

Oregon Conference Youth, assisted by interested adults, raised funds to send Miss Jo Gulley on a seminar tour to attend the European Ecumenical Youth Assembly in Lausanne, Switzerland last summer. Since her return, Jo has spoken at many of our local Churches, addressed Conference and National groups and has been elected Secretary of our National Youth Council.

Many leadership training opportunities, both Methodist and Interdenominational, exist in Oregon. Local Churches all too often fail to involve their youth leaders in such activities. Our youth program would advance more rapidly if full advantage were taken of these fine programs.

Special thanks should go to Mrs. Kenneth L. Bond, our Conference volunteer junior high worker for many contributions she makes in her field and to the sixteen sub-district counselors who form the background of our Conference Youth Program.

Respectfully submitted
Craig T. Harper
Director of Youth Work

CHILDREN'S WORK

The field of Children's Work continues to grow as we realize that all weekday activities in the Church are also a part of our responsibility. This means more than the Sunday morning Church School hour. Every part of the program that concerns children is also our concern.

The Council of Children's Work (a quarterly group meeting of leaders in a local Church in the Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary and Junior departments) continues to receive our attention. Some training has been given in this work but it is our plan to enlarge it. We hope that every Church will name this person to coordinate the work of children's teachers. Plans can be made then for the emphases that need to be stressed in the months ahead. Small and large Churches will want to choose this person for their Church.

Observation schools, leadership schools, visits to sub district and local Churches by leaders of Children's work have been held in many areas. Members of the Conference Committee on Children's work have given leadership as have a number of trained volunteer workers. Lay people contribute a great deal of help as we seek to share ideas and plans with other Church school workers.

to grow and to improve its educational program. In recent years, the annual gifts of business, church and alumni have helped to strengthen salaries for a dedicated faculty. Last September two residence houses were open to upper-class women and construction is now well underway for the new mens' dormitory which will open in September for 240 men. No single one of these accomplishments could have been possible without the gifts of Willamette friends.

As stated in the University bulletin, the major objective of Willamette is "to prepare young men and women for mature living by planting in them the basic attributes demanded by an increasingly complex world — knowledge, Christian character, and a high sense of responsibility." A great purpose that increasingly demands the continued interest and support of the University's constituency.

Respectfully,
Jerry Whipple
Assistant to the President

HIGHER EDUCATION

This is the first report to the Oregon Conference of the newly organized Committee on Higher Education. This committee was appointed by the Conference Board of Education in February as a result of the action taken last year by General Conference.

At the time this report is being written the entire committee has not had an opportunity to meet. Because of the imperative needs of Wesley Foundations, however, the members of the Executive Committee have met with the individual Wesley Foundation Directors.

One of the first actions of the Executive Committee was to recommend that a composite report be made to the Conference for all the Wesley Foundations. In order that members of Oregon Conference might have a better understanding of the goals, accomplishments and needs of the several Wesley Foundations, this committee is submitting such a report at this time which will be supplemented by more specific comments and recommendations at Annual Conference.

Accredited Wesley Foundations exist at the University of Oregon, Oregon State University, Southern Oregon College, and Oregon College of Education. At the U of O, OSU and SOC these foundations operate as independent groups. At OCE it has affiliated with other denominational groups and works cooperatively with these groups.

At PSC a physical facility (Westminster House) is provided by the Presbyterian Church and serves the Cooperative Campus Christian Ministry (CCCM) composed of the American Baptists, the Disciples of Christ, the United Church, Methodists, and Presbyterians. Financial support for the CCCM comes from all of these denominations, the largest share coming from the Presbyterians. While the Lutherans are not officially part of this ministry, they have a full-time college pastor in the Portland area, and he has chosen to relate himself to the CCCM. The Methodists, the Congregationalists, the Disciples, and the Presbyterians provide part-time student ministers. The program is directed by the Reverend W. E. Hallman, also Director of the Westminster Foundation for the Synod of Oregon.

At OCE a United Campus Christian Fellowship (UCCF) recently has been established, bringing together the American Baptists, Disciples of Christ, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, and Methodists into a common ministry to students. The Reverend Wayne Hill, minister of the Independence-Monmouth Methodist Church, and The Reverend Robert Duncan, minister of the Independence Presbyterian Church, are the part-time staff members. Dr. Duncan also is a part-time college staff member. Financial support comes from the participating denominations. Because no physical facility presently exists, meetings are held in various campus locations. Plans are developing for the construction by the Methodists of an appropriate physical facility.

on any "old camp ground", but to keep "on the upward trail". The entire Commission, and even the Program Committee under the able leadership of Gene Albertson, is divided into smaller committees or work groups with definite responsibilities. The Future Planning Committee with Ray Balcomb as chairman has set to work in a statesman like manner to try to make the decisions that will give direction to our future development. This year three camps are being held at Loon Lake. The decision as to whether or not this, or some other campsite, should be acquired by the Conference in Southwestern Oregon is under consideration by the Future Planning Committee and the research expected to be complete for a decision by or before the autumn of 1962. Hugh Bleything and his Publicity Committee has presented us with a new camp folder this year. Jerry Igo has prepared a beautiful new set of slides for camp promotion.

The population of Oregon is increasing. Interest in camping is growing. Oregon Methodists have pioneered and as a result now have excellent sites, facilities, and programs. We must be prepared for even a greater future.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter R. Warner, Chairman
Camp Commission

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Last October Willamette acted as host to a re-evaluation team from the Higher Commission of the Northwest Association and Secondary and Higher Schools. This visit followed an extensive self-evaluation study of over two year's work by a special committee of the faculty.

The evaluation committee had as chairman, Dr. John E. Riley, president of Northwest Nazarene College and eleven faculty members of representative colleges and universities. The Committee's report was presented to the Higher Commission of the Northwest Association in November, and as a result of the recommendation of the Higher Commission, The Northwest Association granted Willamette continued accreditation extending over the maximum period which the Association grants to any of its members.

At the same time the committee of The Northwest Association was on campus, a committee was also appointed by the State Department of Education to evaluate the program of teacher education. Based on this committee's recommendation, the State Department of Education also certified Willamette for the education of secondary teachers for a period of five years, which again is a maximum period of time the State Department grants.

The University officials were pleased with the attitude of helpfulness of the evaluation committee and the intelligent approach made in the study of Willamette. It is not feasible to relate specific recommendations, but the general impression of the committee chairman as stated in his report, is indicative of the committee's appraisal of Willamette University. Dr. Riley said in part, — "An above average institution of higher learning with a long history (for the west coast), well defined purposes, a stable program, an excellent faculty, a student body with esprit de corps, an able administration, an attractive and growing campus, sound financing, and a promising future within the bounds set for itself."

The very favorable impression of this committee's report does not mean to imply that there were not constructive recommendations made for specific areas of improvement. Action has already been taken on several of these recommendations, while others will be corrected in normal course of operation. There are some recommendations, however, that will require a much longer period of time and considerable financing to achieve the desired end.

A re-evaluation such as that undertaken last fall not only has great value in the specific recommendations offered, but it also clearly reflects the accomplishments of the past. We who are privileged to serve Willamette today are mindful of her countless friends who have helped the university to achieve its position of eminence in higher education.

Each year there is new evidence to show that Willamette is continuing to grow and to improve its educational program. In recent years, the annual gifts of business, church and alumni have helped to strengthen salaries for a dedicated faculty. Last September two residence houses were open to upper-class women and construction is now well underway for the new mens' dormitory which will open in September for 240 men. SPORTS COMMITTEE

The Methodist Sports committee has carried forward its work at its accustomed rate, using softball and basketball to build Christianity among young people.

The committee's work was handicapped earlier this year by the illness of its efficient and beloved executive secretary, Dr. Joseph M. Adams. Plans to employ a part-time promotional worker were delayed by inability to find the kind of person wanted, and the program thus did not grow as the committee had foreseen. As this report is written, it seems likely that such a person will join the committee shortly and increase the scope of its work.

The committee requests renewal of authority to carry on a quiet search for funds in the coming conference year to support the promotional work.

WATFORD REED,
Chairman

METHODIST EXPANSION FUND

A review of the Methodist Expansion program during the past year cannot help but bring mixed reaction. It is far from a failure as indicated by the total gifts raised toward the $350,000 goal. Last summer many Methodist friends were called upon to help in the Special Gifts program. The great cause of Christian Higher Education and the imperative needs of Church Extension were presented to them. The records show that over $72,000 was given in special gifts by these friends of the church.

During July and August several groups of laymen met to discuss the program and their part in the formal presentation which took place in the fall. Starting in September a series of sub-district meetings were held, the first was to convey information, inspiration and instruction; the second to hear progress reports on production. In each of the information meetings two resource speakers on these were used. The campaign director, Mr. Reginald West, briefed delegations from local churches on procedure. We believe that a good educational impact was achieved through these speakers and the materials of printed form. All churches were urged to "tell the story" of the various projects of the campaign. In a great majority of cases, we believe the churches accomplished this with the aid of minute men speakers, sermons, bulletins, etc. The program was well accepted. The following statistics show the dollar progress of the campaign to March 21, 1961.

District	Church Pledges	Special Gifts	Totals
Portland	$ 84,906	$ 53,210	$138,116
Forest Grove	42,444	2,000	44,444
Salem	54,724	2,260	56,984
Eugene	64,004	15,400	79,404
	$246,078	$ 72,870	$318,948

Failure to date to achieve our goal causes us to feel the same keen disappointment and frustration an athlete experiences when he loses "a close one". The hundreds of Methodists that have had a part in the Methodist Expansion Fund are united in purpose to see us reach our goal. Mistakes in the program and other reasons have kept us from full victory. These might be listed as "general economic conditions", too large a goal for special gifts, special problems in local churches. None are valid in light of our need and resources. We must go on to successful completion if the people called Methodists are to succeed in a major church program.

H. G. Wells has called history "a race between education and catastrophe". Our failure aids catastrophe. Our success demands sacrifices from all of us.

The church is best represented on the campuses of the U of O and OSU where full-time directors are employed. The excellent location and facilities of the Foundation at the U of O contribute much to the strength of the program. The work at OSU is augmented with the able assistance of a residence-fellow, Richard Lawrence, a student at the Divinity School at the University of Chicago. Mr. Lawrence's major responsibility has been in assisting in the areas of the single student program. According to the Directors Report, at Southern Oregon College, the Methodist Church is the only denomination to have facilities for student work. Although there is not a united program on the Ashland campus similar to that at either Monmouth or Portland State, the Wesley Foundation building is made available for use by other denominations.

The Executive Committee is indeed grateful for the excellent cooperation and information which the Wesley Foundation Directors have given. As was stated in the beginning of this report, time has precluded any definitive recommendations, but it seems self-evident that more staff time for student work, abler student leadership, more vital programs, and, in some instances, more adequate facilities constitute the needs of the several groups.

Your newly established Committee on Christian Higher Education interprets its role in relationship to the foundations as evaluating the needs, recommending action to meet those needs, and stimulating action to the end that the needs are met.

WORSHIP AND FINE ARTS

The Commission on Worship and Fine Arts seeks to serve the conference by encouraging local churches in the use of the great hymns of the church and the creation of helpful worship through liturgy, symbol, and drama.

The commission continues to encourage qualified directors of music in local Methodist Churches to apply for certification under the General Board of Education, and there presently are ten certified directors of music serving churches in the Oregon Conference.

A most satisfying and inspiring series of workshops in music was conducted, during the first week in August, 1960, at Arlington, Hillsboro, Junction City, and Grants Pass, under the leadership of Dr. Bliss Wiant, director of the department of music of the General Board of Education, and with the assistance of leaders from our own conference. More than 200 people related in some way to the music program of local churches participated in these workshops, and the response was most enthusiastic. The program included a study of the meaning and method of worship, criteria for judging the adequacy of music for worship, what kind of music is most helpful for children, youth, and adults, and how to use music at these various levels, and the fun of a fresh approach to the Methodist Hymnal. Everyone involved in this program considered it to be most worthwhile.

Plans for a more specialized workshop for this summer have not materialized, and it appears inadvisable to attempt any kind of program this year. It is our hope that another year will see another program offered in the field of worship. The committee recommends that the conference urge all local churches to make some use of the proposed revision of the Book of Worship (available from Cokesbury) and report its reaction to this commission. The commission plans to draft a report to the General Commission on Worship based on the reaction and suggestion of the churches and ministers in this conference.

TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

The Television, Radio and Film Commission of the Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist Church has been occupied this year with both continuing the high level of existing services, and organizing itself to broaden these in the future.

The Audio-Visual sub-committee has carried on the activities of our library in an outstanding way. Special appreciation of course is due to our Librarian, Mrs. W. T. Frost, whose untiring work has made ours one of the finest audio-visual libraries available to any Conference. This year a Bell and Howell movie projector has been added to the equipment of the audio-visual department for use of the Conference staff. The library continues to grow in scope, effectiveness and size. These statistics show something of our growth over the past three years:

	Member churches	Total Library	Number of titles	Circulation
1958-59	110	527	410	2831
1959-60	119	684	457	3169
1960-61	121	796	542	3203

In our television-radio ministry of bringing the gospel to the multitudes, we are seeking to create an organization that will be most effective. Toward that end, we have set up market directors in each marketing area of our state. We hope to telecast the Talk-Back series in all areas where it has not previously been aired. It is quite possible that we can also show it on prime time on the state owned educational stations. As soon as the new Children's series is ready for distribution, we shall hope to place it on our T.V. stations.

Inasmuch as Con-TRAFCO is an inter-board commission, we have now obtained members from all the Conference Boards on the commission in order that we can more effectively serve in both the area of mass media, and in the audio-visual field.

We shall have a page in the monthly mailing to promote both our Con-TRAFCO program, and also to highlight the commendable programs occurring on commercial radio and television.

We are happy that our Conference World Service Budget now has a major item in it for the Methodist Television-Radio Ministry Fund. We urge the continuance of this item and the augmentation of it by similar items in

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Commission is in reality an interboard committee whose task is to plan, coordinate, and help carry out the church's concern for the understanding of an commitment to Christian vocation in all of life and particularly to one's life work. During the past year the Commission has conducted a successful Church Career Clinic in Portland, assisted vocational counselors in two high school institutes, continued its support of Christian Vocations Fellowship, sent copies of "Methodist Service Projects, 1961" to all ministers in the conference, encouraged every local church to have an active committee on Christian vocations or at least one layman to be responsible for this concern, and provided each local church through its minister with material to assist the Christian vocations committee to organize and function effectively.

During the year ahead the Commission seeks to accomplish its purposes in the following ways:

1. It plans to assist the Board of Ministerial training and Qualifications in conducting a Conference on the Ministry.
2. It will increase its support to Christian Vocations Fellowship, providing guidance and financial assistance.
3. It seeks to give direct support in the area of Christian vocations to the Conference youth program through personnel, literature, and other assistance.
4. It will encourage high school institute deans to have a vocational counselor in each summer camp and will provide vocational resources for these counselors.
5. Members of the Commission will be available to assist local church committees on Christian vocations.
6. It will try to develop an adequate and efficient system of giving continued assistance to youth who have indicated an interest in a church career.
7. It will continue to obtain and make available to youth counselors, church school teachers, ministers, and local church committees through the Conference headquarters resource materials to use in their vocational counseling with youth.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert G. Kingsbury, Chairman

MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications must necessarily do the bulk of its work through interviews of ministerial candidates at the time of the annual conference. Reports of this work is then given to the executive session of the conference.

The continuing education of the ministry has been of special concern of the board. The preaching workshops, designed to provide study of the purposes of preaching and the construction of sermons, have been sufficiently helpful to encourage the board to continue them another year.

A list of library resources has recently been made available to ministers for their use in obtaining books for their work and study. And the board at its mid-year meeting instructed one of its committees to study new approaches to Portland area pastor's school.

STUDY SECTION
ON
MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

"Methodism was born when God gave John Wesley 'a face-to-face encounter with his Saviour, and assurance that Christ had taken away his sins'. Soon that spark of grace set ten thousand hearts on fire.'

"Then and now, this assurance is the contagious thing. Possessing it, men are possessed by an insistent urge to witness and to share with others its joy and transforming power. Evangelistic passion has been the heart of the Methodist movement . . . our most sacred privilege as Christians is to share with our family and friends the inestimable blessings which we have received in Christ. We call upon our people to join us in an evangelistic outreach by personal witness."

These quotations are part of the great statement adopted by the General Conference in Denver, April 29, 1960. They are stirring words. They call us to greater effort in evangelism in the Church; a call to which we in Oregon Methodism make ready response. For we believe that just as God called the Methodist Church to a great task in the days of John Wesley, he is still calling it to rise up and meet the tremendous challenge of the living of these days — both today and tomorrow.

We rejoice that, this year, greater emphasis has been evidenced in all areas of evangelistic work in our Conference. We commend the churches that have set high goals for winning new members and have achieved them. It is good to set goals. When good goals have been set good results have been achieved. Methodism in Oregon is growing!

However, as we turn to the future we know the size of the task that lies before us, and we are aware of the power, the ability and the methods that He has put at our disposal. We of the Board of Evangelism are concerned, and we want to share that concern with every member of the Methodist Church in the Oregon Conference.

WE HAVE A CONCERN

We have a concern, and that concern is to call Oregon Methodists to a deeper commitment to Christ. We need to deepen our personal dedication to the radiant New Testament faith and experience that Jesus Christ is Lord. We need to devote ourselves more sincerely to spiritual disciplines, regular Bible study and earnest prayer. We are the branches, but He is the Vine. Unless we are in daily communion with Him, we become spiritual pigmies with a fading vision of the Kingdom of God. We call Oregon Methodists, both ministers and lay people alike, to a deepening dedication of themselves to the discipline of holy habits, enabling them to be used of God to bear more faithful and more fruitful witness that Jesus Christ is Lord.

We have a concern for people. We take issue with those who are "number conscious" — both those who see every person and event in terms of a number and a percentage and those who because of a repulsion against numbers are unable to see the flesh and blood human beings that these numbers represent. Our concern is with people — men and women and children, who are more than numbers, but names and individuals, with hearts and souls, and in need of what the Methodist Church has to offer — namely, Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Our concern cannot even stop here. The General Board of Evangelism has made a long-range study of trends in population and has reported that by 1970 there will have been born 48,000,000 babies in the United States. By 1970 our population will have increased well over 30,000,000 people. The magnitude local church Benevolence budgets to the end that we may meet the challenge of 10c per member of the churches in Oregon for this great ministry.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Oregon Methodist Conference Historical Society has helped to answer some of the historical questions concerning churches and people.

The sale of the book, "A History of Oregon Methodism," by Thomas D. Yarnes and edited by Harvey E. Tobie, has been encouraging. It is urged that churches, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Men, the MYF, or other groups, present copies of the book to schools and libraries.

The continued use of the song, "Where Thou Goest," is requested. The words by Anna Pittman Lee have been set to music by Christine Willits to make a song of beauty and of historical significance.

We urge the collection and preservation of historical records and materials which are of interest to the churches and the Conference.

REPORT OF VISITORS TO THE PACIFIC SCHOOL OF RELIGION BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

Judging from the 'invasion' of California by Methodist Ministers of the Oregon Annual Conference attending the Earle Lectures last Feburary, this excellent lecture series is becoming increasingly popular with our brethren. The Pacific School of Religion also serves our conference in providing theological training for many of its ministers. This year there are three men from Oregon in attendance at the school.

We are told that the cost of training one minister for one year at P.S.R. is $2500. The amount we have been contributing from conference benevolences to this school is $400. We certainly are the greater beneficiaries of the close ties that our conference has with this school. In addition, many of you have taken advantage of the library and Palestine exhibit loan service provided by the school.

P.S.R. anticipates an operating budget of $415,000 next year, and $95,000 of that must be secured in contributions from individuals and churches. We encourage our church to make the needs of the Pacific School of Religion known to their people and to provide opportunity for them to include the school in their benevolence program.

REPORT OF STUDY SECTION ON EDUCATION

A motion was made that this conference assembled Study Section on Education request the Camp Commission to consider the matter of needed camp improvements and repairs and make a study to determine what can be done and report these through the Board of Education to the 1962 Anual Conference for action.

A recommendation was made that the Conference give its approval for a series of worship and music workshops to be held during the summer of 1962.

A motion was made that the Study Section on Education in session express meditation and prayer. Let us not shut the door of God's House to any soul in need.

We also suggest that business and planning-session meetings of all boards, commissions and committees in the local church be preceded by a period of prayer and searching for the mind of God.

We believe that if we earnestly respond to this call to deeper spiritual discipline and discovery that it will result in:

a. A growing experience of God in the home.
b. A growing commitment of both laymen and ministers to the mission of the Church.
c. A recovery of New Testament concern for persons.
d. A rebirth of spiritual vitality within the life of the Church.

WE HAVE A PROGRAM

We urge that Churchmanship Schools be held in September on a District basis. It is believed that Dr. Lloyd Daugherty of the Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church will be available to lead the respective workshop sections on evangelism. The purpose would be:

a. To inspire newly elected leaders.
b. To train commission members and to provide them with techniques and methods to carry out their responsibilities.
c. To relate the concerns of evangelism and education.
d. To train Methodist youth in the techniques of a Christian Witness Mission.

We feel that the District Conferences on Evangelism held last year were extremely helpful. We therefore recommend their renewal this year; that they be all-day District Convocations on Evangelism for ministers; and that they be held throughout the various Districts prior to Lent. Their purpose will be to discuss:

a. The theology of evangelism.
b. The District program of evangelism.
c. The Three Great Weeks of Evangelism in 1962. — We recommend that the Commission on Evangelism of the local churches begin a consistent year long visitation evangelism program.
d. Evangelism problems within the District.
e. The sharing of successful evangelism techniques and methods.

The General Board of Evangelism has issued a challenge to the entire Methodist Church to join in Three Great Weeks of Evangelism in 1962:

a. March 11-18—Week of Preparation for Every Methodist to Become a Personal Witness for Christ. (Tentative arrangements have been made with Bishop Ivan Lee Holt to lead us in this period of preparation.)
b. March 25-30—Week of Visitation Evangelism.
c. April 15-22—Week of Worship, Baptism, Reception of New Members.

We suggest that this Conference accept this challenge and be a part of this great outreach for Christ.

We call each pastor to a re-dedication of himself to personal calling. Let each pastor seek to visit in each home in his parish during the Conference Year.

We recommend that a strong note of evangelism be given a place in our Conference, District and Sub-district programs of youth work. We urge the youth of each local church to conduct a Christian Witness Mission, undergirded and strengthened through earnest prayer.

We suggest each local church devise some method, pertinent to its own needs and situation, whereby every member is contacted periodically by church letter, visitation, telephone contact or other acceptable method. A suggested term for this procedure is: Annual Roll Call Month.

We commend the use of the Christian Calendar Year calling attention to Christ's claim upon our lives.

We recommend that each local church form a prayer group, unless one is now organized.

of our task is further indicated by the fact that there are now over 60,000,000 unchurched persons in America needing to be won for Christ and His Church. The Episcopal address at General Conference states: "to care spiritually for our Methodist proportionate share of the increasing population will require that we organize a new church every 22 hours of this quadrennium."

Bringing men into fellowship with Christ is the answer to the moral and spiritual needs of a needy America. Let the Methodist Church make its Christian witness effective and strong!

WE HAVE A MOTIVE

The inner compulsions of faith will continue to provide motivation for what we realize must be done. These include:

a. An assurance that Christ, our Saviour, has taken away our sins.
b. A passionate gratitude for pardon.
c. A heart of love moved by compassion for the plight of man.
d. The Spirit of Love making for social unity, justice, and respect for others.
e. The conviction that intellectual, moral, and spiritual assimilation within the Church that is Christ's body, is indispensable to the salvation of man and society.
f. Eternity in the heart drawing men to share the Eternity of the Creator.

We must meet the challenge that confronts American society for a new ledge of spiritual depth in its history. We are made aware of the urgency of this challenge by the precarious position of a divided world poised on the precipice of threatened self-destruction.

This is our motive. Therefore, as a people called by God to be His disciples in these trying days, let us join together in a great evangelistic outreach to seek and save the lost, transforming all peoples and nations through the Gospel of Jesus Christ who is Lord.

WE HAVE A METHOD

As we reflect upon the gains in evangelism over past years, one fact stands out above all others and that is, that nothing really happens until and unless it happens in the local church. It is an accepted fact that ministers must be consecrated to Christ and be leaders in witnessing for Him. We believe that unless the minister is committed to the evangelistic task the congregation is likely to be spiritually sterile and indifferent.

Motives are very significant, but in translating them into action there is need for method. We call our ministers and laymen to a re-dedication of themselves to Christ, and to a life of spiritual discipline and holy habits which gave birth to the Wesleyan revival.

Prayer is the life blood of evangelism. We strongly urge every minister to attend the Conference Prayer Retreat, and in the quiet fellowship of prayer seek God's will, and the strength to follow it.

Believing that prayer is necessary for the deepening of spiritual life, we recommend the formulation of a "prayer group" in each local church. Commendable resource books on this subject are:

a. John W. Casteel, Spiritual Renewal Through Personal Groups.
b. Robert Raines, New Life In The Church.

In cooperation with the Board of Lay Activities and the District Superintendents, we suggest that laymen, belonging to significant prayer fellowships, be encouraged to share their experiences in churches desiring the creation of a prayer group.

Recognizing the unique authority of the Holy Scriptures in the Christian life we urge that all possible steps be taken by the local church to stimulate Bible reading and study on the part of all Methodists. Let us encourage the use of the Bible at worship services, in family worship, in visitation, and for personal devotions. A recommended resource book for Bible study groups is:

a. William Barclay's series entitled Daily Study Bible.

We suggest that wherever possible, our churches be open at all times for finest annual gathering of Methodist Men in the Conference. The aim is to have Sept. 8, 9 and 10, 1961, on Willamette University Campus the greatest yet. Bishop Grant to be speaker.

Third National Conference, Purdue University, July 14-16, 1961 — "Manpower with God's power Builds the Church."

All-day conferences, special services and District lay retreats have been held. The use of special retreats is a real growing area of our work.

Every Member Visitation — This is a program sponsored by the National Board of Lay Activities and the "salesmanship" work has been accepted by this Conference Board. We have become more and more aware of the full stewardship implications of this program as well as the soundness of the money-raising aspects. It is a "Know your church, serve your church," as well as a "Support your church" program. In this area a need to put the Expansion Fund over the top in the Special Gifts category is particularly noted and the necessity for assistance in the raising of funds which now stand as pledges from local churches is recognized.

Methodist Men's Clubs —

1. 15,000 clubs in all Methodism by the end of the Quadrennium.
2. New outlets for Methodist Men's Hour — in this state there have been two.
3. Evangelism — "Each man win one to Christ."
4. Development of District Lay Retreat.
5. Support Alaska College.

Evangelism — Particular emphasis has been placed on evangelistic calling. This is an essential part of the Stewardship program.

Lay Speaking — Portland District has done very effective work on this program.

WE HAVE A GOAL

With the feeling that it is God who has given us our concern for the work at hand and that it is He who is both our motivation and the provider of our methods, we therefore suggest the following goals for this Conference:

a. THAT THERE BE NO BARREN CHURCHES IN THE OREGON CONFERENCE, and that with God's help, each local church will endeavor to receive one new convert on Profession of Faith for every five members now on the roll.

b. THAT NEW METHODIST CONGREGATIONS BE ORGANIZED in each District during the 1961-62 Conference year whereever there is need and as money is available, and that toward this end established churches evidence their desire to sponsor new congregations in their area by consecrating members to be the nuclei of new parishes wherever this is possible; and that all of the Conference agencies which would be involved work together toward this end.

c. THAT EVERY CHURCH COMMISSION IN EVERY METHODIST CHURCH IN THE CONFERENCE BE ORGANIZED AND FUNCTIONING ACCORDING TO THE DISCIPLINE as soon as practicable following Annual Conference, and that the District Superintendents report on this item in their annual report next year.

d. THAT A FISHERMEN CLUB, OR REGULAR MONTHLY VISITATION FELLOWSHIP BE ESTABLISHED in each local church before the end of the Conference Year.

e. THAT THE FOLLOWING DAYS BE RECOGNIZED AS ALL-CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP SUNDAYS:

The Last Sunday Of: October, February, April.

We urge each local church to make a special effort to receive members on these days and to make report of the results to their respective District Secretaries of Evangelism.

We of the Conference Board of Evangelism realize that this is one of the most ambitious programs that we have ever undertaken, but taking a cue from the General Conference which dared to launch out into bold new ventures, we feel that it is an attainable one.

Respectfully submitted, Kenneth S. Simonds, Sr., Chairman.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The reins of the Board were turned over to a new Conference Lay Leader after seven years of successful and dedicated leadership by Howard Somers, who was chosen as the "Leading Layman of the Western Jurisdiction during the last Quadrennium." The current program of the church has continued on the foundation that he laid, with primary emphasis on the importance of each local church and the essential need for loyal and dedicated church people at this level.

Three new offices have been established within the Board:

Associate Conference Lay Leader in Charge of Stewardship, Ross Youngblood.

Associate Conference Lay Leader in Charge of Methodist Men, Wilf. (Bill) Jordan.

Associate Conference Lay Leader in Charge of Jurisdictional and National Work, Howard B. Somers.

Meetings have been held as required. Three members of the Board have attended National level meetings. We are aware of the possibility of too much meeting on all levels. Close liaison has, however, been maintained with the the Cabinet through District Superintendent Larry Guderian, Bishop-appointed Cabinet Representative. A series of "Know your Church" programs has been effectively held throughout all Districts of the Conference with Bishop Grant. Coordination of lay and ministerial effort has been emphasized and activating of the lay membership to Conference committees has been urged.

Alaska Library Fund — $8,192.24 raised; $807.76 to go.

Men's Meetings — The Men's Assembly in Salem has grown to be the called and the all-inclusiveness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. To work toward anything less than this is to fail to apprehend the Gospel and to work creatively. Amid the turmoil of many voices and many revolutionary trends we must hear the clear call of the Son of Man who has not a history of stopping revolutions and changes but a magnificent history of guiding and directing mankind through such times. This is indeed a time of unrest and change which as in other similar times can be a prelude to real significant living.

CONFIDENCE IN OUR CHURCH

In some of our small towns we sense a growing distrust of our church. For those of us who come into a local church from time to time this means nothing more than a failure to see the implications of the Gospel. We often live on low levels and draw even smaller circles about ourselves. How much we need to expand our minds and hearts to see the needs of the conference and the world! How much we need to hear the voice from "just next door" that we might step outside of our selfish inclinations. Confidence in our church, your church, is the beginning of "losing ourselves" that we might be found. The voice of the conference, often coming through the voice of the District Superintendent, is the call to live largely.

Beyond this, of course, is conviction and the covenant one makes with God through His Church. It is the firm belief that in this fellowship of which we are a part there is a wholeness of expression and a wholeness of summons which we can find nowhere else. This is a realization that in our Methodist family there is ample opportunity for self-expression as well as the assurances of the Gospel in its fullness.

HOW THIS HAS BEEN DONE

This year which has just passed has been the first in a new quadrennium. Because of this, the year has been one of conferences and gatherings in which we have given instructions and attempted to interpret the message of the General Conference (the voice of Methodism) to the local church. In each district Churchmanship Schools have been held. District meetings on Evangelism, District Pastors' retreats, District Woman Society for Christian Service meetings, plus a regular series of sub-district meetings on all levels of church life have been carried on. To this we must add the Preaching Workshops for ministers and the endless number of small group meetings when the District Superintendent has sat with Pastor and people to meet problems together. Your District Superintendents have been called upon to take part in several meetings outside of the state that our church might raise its voice in many areas. As a result or all of this we have been developing good leadership in the local church. Many new faces appear at our conferences to take the "helm" of our church life.

OUR EXPANSION PROGRAM

This year saw the Methodist Expansion Fund launched throughout the conference. The complete attention of the District Superintendents was directed this way even to the displacing of the usual "first quarterly conference." At this date we are still in need of some $30,000 to reach the goal of $350,000 which we, the conference, voted last year. Our experience in this campaign indicates that many of our local churches are unaware of the areas of available funds. On the fringes in our many churches are those people who have great leadership ability as well as financial ability and these persons are sitting back letting others carry the load. We have been able, from the Expansion Fund drive, to find some of these people who have actually been waiting for a good cause in which to invest time and funds. The Expansion Fund has at least opened our eyes in this area and as we continue to search for funds we can begin to realize the goals and purposes of the campaign.

On another front in the Expansion Fund we see some churches which have failed to take any part in this program. It is unfortunate that the Gospel is so restricted. We trust that the Vision of meaning and belonging will so inspire these churches that they will even yet take the "fair share" serve with love and enthusiasm for our task.

Norman Amtower, Conference Treasurer, is a source of strength as he guides the office, and with facts and insights, aids the Conference program and helps to plan for the future.

The Volunteer Staff takes increasing responsibility so that more and larger numbers of groups and people secure help in the local church.

Conference leaders, pastors and laymen share with each other in our Master's work.

The accompanying reports reveal glimpses of the vitality and scope of that which we do together.

Your Executive Secretary gives major attention to:

The Methodist Expansion Fund (Particularly Special Gifts)
The Family Centered Church Program
Publication of the 1960-1964 Advance Guide.

As Trustee, he is proud to have shared in the opening of three great institutions:

Alaska Methodist University
Rogue Valley Manor
Rose Villa

As one of two ministerial members from the Western Jurisdiction of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church he shares in the challenging responsibility of your world wide missionary program. He will be happy to present facts and insights gained here to your churches and church groups.

Sermons and major addresses on week days, Evangelism programs, Building Fund Crusades, Adult Work, EVERY MEMBER VISITATION AND Loyalty Dinners, added to our office work and, that with all Conference agencies, keep us busy.

We are happy to serve you.

COMPOSITE REPORT DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS:

Bishop Grant,
Members and friends of Oregon Methodism:

The future of Oregon Methodism looks bright. While the over all gain in population during the past ten years was 16.3 percent, the gain in Oregon Methodism for that same period was 21.3 percent. This means that in 1950 we had 43,552 members in our church while today we have 52,809. The increase as you can quickly see is 9,110. However, in spite of this increase on our part the state of Oregon remains with one of the lowest percapita ratios for church relationships. The task ahead of us is staggering. There is but one direction we can go. We must somehow, someway, reach the unreached. What have we to offer?

It is time to bring content into all of our activities. Too often we have stressed membership in our beloved fellowship without putting meaning into that membership. We have thought in terms of figures and statistics instead of the value of the person, and it appears that in order to "have a good record" we have bowed at the altar of statistics while the crying needs of the human soul in a world of confusion go unheeded. It makes little difference if we have fifty-two thousand members in our state if these fifty-two thousand are numbed to the Gospel and its implications. No group of men is more conscious of the needs of the human soul in the average Methodist Church than the District Superintendents.

We do not necessarily answer this cry by more and greater programs in the church, but more programs might well be undertaken more creatively as the human soul catches the significance of the Gospel for modern life. We dare not pinch the message to fit our littleness. We must somehow expand to fit the message. We must not think of the Gospel as a "spiritual" message set over against a "social" message. We must see the wholeness to which we are other four commissions in the church. The stewardship of all of life has been emphasized with special training and promotion in the local church. Every-member canvas and careful planning plus good business procedure has helped our local churches to take a new delight in Stewardship as a commitment in joy to God.

SOCIAL CONCERN

The cry of many peoples for freedom has come to the ears of the Christian Church. We must lead in the many areas of concern not only abroad but most certainly at home. We have not as yet solved our race question. We have not yet opened our minds and hearts beyond our prejudices. Yet to this we are called and our church ought to lead the way. The need for personal moral life and in our total living the cry for honesty and integrity particulary in the face of the recent events in national, state, and business life is a cry that must not go unheard by our church.

APPRECIATION

We are grateful for the privilege of working in such a fine fellowship of laymen and ministers as we have in the Oregon Conference. The Conference personell through the Conference office has geen a great assistance to us, and we wish to voice a word of thanks. We also want to express our appreciation to Ruth Peterson, secretary to Bishop Grant for her help and assistance to us and particularly the work she does in relation to the Together magazine.

We are grateful to our Pastors. Without the wholehearted support which they give to their Superintendents the program of the church would all but fail. The gracious, warm-hearted, welcome we receive from each of them eases us over some of the difficult situations we are called upon to face.

To Bishop Grant we owe a great deal of gratitude. He is leading us into enlarged areas of faith. His great concern for each one of his pastors and people makes him the great bishop that he is. We feel it a privilege and an honor to serve the church with him in these days. Mrs. Grant, along with her husband, has a unique place in all of our family circles. May God bless us, our church, our fellowship as we live and serve together.

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Your Commission on World Service and Finance submits the following report to the Oregon Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, June, 1961.

1. The report of the Commission as approved by the vote of the Annual Conference shall be printed in the Conference Journal.
2. All Annual Conference Funds shall be deposited in banks or financial institutions which are insured by either the Federal Deposits Insurance Corporation or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.
3. As the 1960 Discipline (Paragraph 729) requires, Richard C. Kneeland, Certified Public Accountant, Public Service Building, Portland 4, Oregon, is designated as the Conference Auditor. (Conference Rule 4.055).
4. All persons, authorized to handle Annual Conference Funds are covered by a blanket bond up to the amount of $50,000.00 issued by a licensed surety company. (Paragraph 807, 1960 Discipline).
5. All Conference Budget items shall be apportioned to the pastoral charges solely on the "Grade Figure."
6. The Conference Treasurer may disburse each month to the various boards and agencies 1/12 of their respective Conference Funds; the Wesley Foundations approved by the Conference; the Conference Administration Fund. This authorization applies only to the first nine months of the Conference year. In addition, the Conference Treasurer is authorized to forward a minimum of the amount of designated "salary items" to each agency of the Conference for each of the last three months of the Conference year.
7. All funds on apportionment, including benevolences, shall be remitted to the Annual Conference Treasurer in ten equal payments, beginning with July and ending in April.
8. That if necessary, Conference action be taken to require such changes which came through the directions of our conference. We can and we must complete this program; our future depends upon it.

CHURCH EXTENSION

Church extension is part of the Expansion Fund drive. We are in need of new church schools, new buildings, and of course, new congregations. We have made some steps in this direction which we must mention. New church buildings are in construction at Arlington, Madras, Garden Home, Wilshire (Portland), and Trinity (Salem). Several remodeling tasks have been completed. It is our experience that often a new building promotes a new and enlarged congregation. At this time two new congregations are in the process of being gathered. One of these is in Eugene at the Danebo district and the other is in the Milwaukie area.

If we are to meet the growing needs of our state we must somehow have the funds in order to purchase property for new churches before that property is beyond our financial reach. For this reason we encourage all of our churches to meet the Expansion Fund requests and also to continue to contribute toward the Extension Fund askings which have come to each church. Because some help has been given our conference through an anonymous donor we have been able to make some purchases in property. This has been a step in the right direction. It is now up to us to take the second and the third steps that must follow. In the face of the growing needs of our state we must not let down in our concern for others.

EVANGELISM

We have made a special emphasis this year in the area of evangelism. Under the able leadership of our Board of Evangelism we have helped lead a great ingathering program. It is now very apparent that Evangelism is the normative work of the church, not something special, but that which permeated all of our doing. We need to take Evangelism out of the closet and set it into all of our programs from youth work to social concerns, from missions to finance. To some degree this has been done and is in the process of greater doing. We can afford to be nothing less than good evangelists in all areas of our living: our total living. At this time the figures of our increase in church membership are not available; it can be said that where our churches show a real concern for people there will be growth.

EDUCATION

Education and our church have grown together. Our Church Schools are doing a better job in teaching, use of our materials, and in outreach. The Laboratory School each summer is a growing instrument in training our Christian Educational leadership. Attendance at our camps is growing to a breaking point. Yet here is one of the truly fine avenues through which young people catch the vision of what it means to serve in and through the Church. College age youth, high school youth are looking more and more toward the Church for a way to answer the problems of our day. We must continue this trend and constantly equip ourselves to meet the needs of our time in this area.

MISSIONS

The Oregon Conference still receives in aid from the National Board of Missions of our church more than it contributes to this work through our local churches. We are yet considered a great mission field. We must, however, constantly call the attention of our people to the other great and many mission fields of the world. Our Woman's Society for Christian Service has given a great service here as well as in other areas of church work. In many of our churches these voices have been the only ones raised for the Mission program of our church which, of course, says something about us both ways. Our Conference and District Secretaries have given us good leadership during this past year for which we are indeed grateful.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

Workshops in Stewardship and Finance have been held along with the bursed shall be reported to the Conference Treasurer and recorded in the Conference Journal in Column No. 51a. All other allowances (ie: Auto, Travel, Entertainment, etc.) shall be reported to the Conference Treasurer and recorded in the Conference Journal in Column No. 48c. It is furthermore recommended that the above amounts for utilities or expenses shall be considered as compensation from the charge in computing of Minimum Salary and Conference Insurance. It is the intent of this resolution that all money paid for parsonage utilities shall so be reported to the Conference Treasurer whether or not the church so paying is in the Minimum Salary fund. It is strongly recommended that adjustments be made so that the above recommendations will not reduce any pastor's income.

Church Extension

At the request of the Commission on Missions, the Commission on World Service and Finance recommends that an item of $50,000 be adopted for Church Extension and that it be apportioned to the charges as a supplemental budget item figured solely on the "Grade Figure." The money is to be divided equally between a revolving loan fund and actual grants in need for church extension. Any church may designate not more than 50% of its contribution to any of the Conference church extension advance special projects. The other 50% must go into the revolving loan fund.

SPECIAL RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Willamette University be permitted to present in the churches of the Conference the work of the University; and to this end November 12, 1961 be designated as Willamette Day; with permission to take the Willamette offering in as many churches as will cooperate; and that the Oregon Conference recommend to the churches of the Conference that a sum for the support of the University be included in the local church benevolence budgets wherever possible, thus seeking to attain the recommended General Church goal of $1.00 per member for the support of church-related schools and colleges.
2. That Pacific School of Religion be permitted to carry on a quiet campaign for funds without quotas or assessments.
3. That the Oregon Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service be permitted to carry on a campaign for Endowment Funds for the Methodist Home at Salem in order to raise $500,000 without quotas or assessments to the churches.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

August 7, 1961

Dear Sirs:

We have audited the books and records of the Conference Treasurer, Norman Amtower, and those of the Oregon Methodist Ministers' Retirement Fund for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1961 and April 30, 1961, respectively. Our examination was made in conformity with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the records and reports properly show the cash and security positions, and the results of operations (on a cash basis) for the fiscal year just ended.

As is customary we will examine such other committee financial reports and funds as are presented to us for the same year.

Yours very truly,
KNEELAND & KNEELAND

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Oregon Annual Conference entered into a program of full transition to the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (MRPF) as of July 1, 1958. Now, somewhat less than three years later, a pretty thorough study has been made

CONFERENCE GRADE FIGURES

The "Grade Figure" is a proportion expressed in decimals of the financial ability of a church to the financial ability of the Conference. It is based 25% on membership and 75% on "all non-capital expenditures."

The "Grade Figure" is computed by the Conference Treasurer near the end of one Conference year to apply to the following Conference year. They are computed by averaging the membership and fiscal reports of the two years immediately preceding the current year. The new figures are published in the Pre-Conference reports and the Conference Journal.

For the purpose of brevity and to allow a small margin of safety against deficits, the conference average totals do not include fractions of thousands of dollars.

The expenditure item is secured by subtracting from Column 75 of the Conference Treasurer's Report the amounts in Columns 42, 43, 72 and 73. The membership item is found in Column 9 of the Conference Statistician's Report.

It is the recommendation of the Conference Treasurer that the Conference consider two more deletions from the "expenditure" portion of the computation. Conference Special Vouchers, now issued by the Goodwill Industries, and gifts and pledges to the Methodist Expansion Fund should be reported in separate columns of the Annual Report and not be considered a part of a church's "non-capital expenditures."

e. It is the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that the Co-ordinating Council try to obtain a complete set of the Conference Journal as far back as possible and that those copies of the Journal be bound and left in the office of the Oregon Annual Conference in Portland so that the various offices, boards, and commissions of the churches might have access to the matters contained therein. It is our recommendation that this be included as part of the Co-ordinating Council's budget.

FRATERNAL EMERGENCY COMMITTEE

The Fraternal Emergency is a voluntary Fellowship of sharing, upon a non ssessable basis, among the ministers of the Oregon Conference who are giving full time in service and making voluntary contribution of $2.00 makes a minister a participant. Upon the death of a child, wife, or a participating minister, the family is paid a death benefit of cash, amounting at the present time of $200.00 from the fund.

No appeal for funds is made unless there is a death in a family of the fellowship.

A Financial Statement is filed with the Annual Conference each year, showing the amount of the fund.

PORTLAND AREA COUNCIL

What the Coordinating Council is to the Annual Conference, the Area Council is to the entire Area. Very often there are excellent promotional programs geared to function on an Area level which call for a meeting of minds from all our Annual Conferences. This is accomplished through a Council composed of representatives, coming from all parts of the Area, who sit down together and discuss common aims and objectives. Among the many items for consideration which have claimed the attention of the Council, impetus has been given to extending the facilities offered by our Credit Union. The labors of our ministers and conference employees have been made easier through financial assistance given in this particular phase of activity. Leaders from our various denominational Boards have been invited to the Area for special consultation and we have profited greatly by their counsel and leadership.

I wish to thank our three Conferences for giving the Area Council adequate support during the past year and covet the continuing spirit of "togetherness" so evident in the year now closing.

by Huggins and Company, consultants for the general Board of Pensions in Chicago. Here are some of their findings:

1. Under the 30-year funding program adopted by the Oregon Annual Conference, the amortization payment was to be $49,766 the first year, $59,766 the second year, $69,766 the third year, and then $80,886 per year for the remaining 27 years. This plan the Conference has faithfully carried out up to now, as we approach the close of our third year.

2. Since expected costs have been slightly lower than anticipated, on the present schedule we should finish up the entire program in approximately 26 and ¾ths years instead of 27 years. This is no great gain; but the point is, we are not falling behind.

3. The increase asked for this coming year for amortization payment (from $69,766, to $80,886) will be the last increase to be asked for this purpose. We were to take this increase by steps. We have done so. This coming year we will reach the top of the stairs.

Entire cost of pension program for 1961-62 may be outlined as follows:

1. We recommend that the annuity rate be $45.00. This is to be interpreted as including the $43.00 minimum adopted in the full reserve plan outlined above plus $2.00 per service year in direct payment, an increase of $1.00 over last year. If this recommendation is adopted, then the cost of the pension program would be as listed in the paragraph below.

2.	Amortization payment	$ 80,886.00
	Current years, 139 members	63,015.00
	Years on trial	4,600.00
	Additional payments	4,100.00
	Emergency relief	500.00
	Total	$153,101.21
	Estimated income	26,101.21
	To be apportioned	$127,000.00

This is an increase of only $2,000.00 over a year ago and is to be explained entirely by the increased annuity rate of $1.00 per year, which alone will cost us $2,050.00. At the average salary of $5,252.00 the annuity rate should be $52.00. (See Discipline, 1623.1) We are still below this goal.

3. The Board of Pensions asks for $300.00 for travel, and for $300.00 for promotion of Retired Ministers' Day which is to be observed on Jan. 28, 1962 but without an offering, and the breakfast at Annual Conference with new men to explain the Pension Program.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The corporation holds title to real and personal property at Camp Magruder, the lease on which Suttle Lake Camp is located, and also the lease on which Dead Indian Soda Springs Camp is located. Other property interest and other activities of the Board are as follows:

a. METOLIUS. The property at Metolius has now been sold and the money has been received by the Conference and is held by the Board of Trustees subject to the action of the Conference as to its disbursement. $500.00 of the proceeds of the Metolius property was used to pay off the National Board of Missions on a trust agreement.

b. LOOKINGGLASS. The Board of Trustees has hired an attorney to represent the Conference in negotiations and proceedings with the Trustees of the Lookingglass Community Church. Definite action has not yet been determined as to the disposition of this property.

c. MAGRUDER FUND and MANLEY CENTER. A report concerning the Magruder Fund and Manley Center will be in our report at Annual Conference this year.

d. MAYGER. The Board has determined that it might own some property increased cost of hospital care. Hospital rates have increased on the average 5% per year for the last decade.

The Committee recommends that the Retired members pay the same proportionate amount of premiums they paid last year: Retired member and wife $6.50 per quarter (of the $36.50 premium); Retired member $5.00 per quarter (of the $18.25 premium).

The Committee recommends that the active members pay their premiums according to the same schedule as used last year.

(See schedule in 1960 Conference Journal P. 86)

The Committee will report the results of the Life Insurance Survey.

OREGON COUNCIL OF CHURCHES COMMITTEE

The Committee would like to commend the Oregon Council of Churches for their work this past year in the field of FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION, conducted at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth during the summer of 1960.

The Committee wishes to commend the Council for their outstanding work with migrants in the state, and express appreciation for the leadership and influence that it has brought to bear on State Legislation regarding Migrant Problems.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Council in Bend during December brought together outstanding leaders from many denominations to study the field of Christian Education. This program was outstanding in both its breadth of coverage and its eagerness to take a dynamic fresh look at the field.

The executive leadership of the Council has changed in the past year. Dr. Mark Talney has taken a position with the American Bible Society. Mr. George Dick has been appointed to be the new Executive Director; he is now busy getting acquainted with his new job.

Respectfully submitted,
Boone L. White, Chairman

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SITES

A. Introductory: Things have been happening to early Methodist historical sites that the annual conference would not favor if it knew about it; therefore the creation of this special committee to list and study the status of all Methodist historical sites in Oregon and report to the coordinating council and the annual conference.

Ervin Potter, maker of the original motion advised the committee that it would be good to inquire into the legal titles of the sites, their location that they might be more generally recognized, their present condition, and what should be recommended to the annual conference for action.

B. Action taken at the mid-year meeting of the committee (motions passed).

(1) The most important landmarks of early Methodism constitute Methodist sites to be considered by the committee at present.

(2) Continuation of the committee longer than the present conference year is necessary if it is to do the work it sees to be done.

(3) The list of sites suggested by Ormal Trick, chairman of the Conference Historical Society, is our starting point, plus two made at the meeting. See list.

(4) First and special attention shall all be given to Jason Lee Cemetery at Salem. The chairman is to find out immediately its present status.

(5) Investigation shall be made by the chairman as to the simplest way to have proper directional highway signs pointing out such historical sites.

(6) The secretary shall contact the nearest Methodist ministers to the sites on our list to ask them to ascertain for us as much as they can the status of such sites, their location particularly, and what care local

COMMISSION ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

The commission has not had a formal meeting because they have been trying to arrange a meeting with the regional Associate Publisher of The Methodist Publishing House, Dr. J. Otis Young. Such a meeting proved impossible before March 1st. It is now known that such a meeting will have to come during the next conference year. The following information is submitted from the correspondence with Dr. Young:

(1) Duties are described in the DISCIPLINE, Section IX of Chapter IV (Paragraph 1158).

(2) The Methodist Publishing House has served the church since 1789 when John Dickins, one of the preachers lent his life savings of $600.00 for the project and was named the first Book Steward. Today it is a multi-million dollar business, the oldest and the largest book store and book publishing business in the world. Last year over 5 million books were printed and the printing of the Upper Room averages 3 million copies per issue. The Interpreter's Bible has sold over one million copies. The total gifts to Methodist retired preachers has reached $18,868,198.00 since its beginning, nearly half of this has been given since "Unification".

(3) Two years ago a reorganization was completed along lines of corporation management of such a vast enterprise. Operation is still directed by The General Conference Board of Publication, which chooses the president and publisher (Mr. Lovick Pierce) and sets the general policies under which he must operate. Associate Publishers, Methodist ministers, are chosen for each major region to help interpret and promote the publishing interests. Vice-Presidents direct distinctive activities of the business operation which must be self-sustaining. Regional Service Centers have been set up to service the mail order business and provide mass buying centers and sources of supply for the Cokesbury (retail) Book Stores.

the extreme, besides being unlikely to achieve the proclaimed purpose of saving this nation from her enemies.

We view with considerable concern the outpost of communism in Cuba only 90 miles away, with its threat to the security of all the Americas. For the first time we can, or should, understand the fear on the part of the U.S.S.R. engendered by our numerous air bases adjoining its borders from which objects of destruction can be over its homeland within seconds. We humbly acknowledge our share in the provocation of the arms race.

We commend and support our national efforts in space exploration, but we believe that the space race, and especially the "Man on the Moon" project, is an unworthy symbol of national purpose. Prestige sought in this way may inflate our national ego, but it fails to epitomize the true greatness of our nation in its humanitarian concerns, its democratic principles, and its creativity in finding solutions to the world's basic problems of hunger, disease, poverty and ignorance.

We believe that the Christian way of sharing our material, medical, educational, cultural and technical resources with nations in need, particularly in Asia, Africa and Latin America, will in fact prove a more practicable and effective program of security than reliance upon weapons and will be more pleasing to the God of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We welcome all the evidences that the President shows of sharing these convictions with us and bind ourselves to support him in execution of sound policy he may present to implement these ends.

We further call to the attention of our people the final address to the Nation of President Eisenhower, in which he warned of the danger of military—industrial relationships. Mr. Eisenhower boldly charged that "in the top circles of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military—industrial complex."

We call upon the Government, therefore, to seek ways and means of controlling our immense military establishment and powerful arms industry, for the sake of economy within this nation, but much more in order to ensure the peace of the world, in so far as it is dependent on the United States.

2. Civil Defense

While we share with the Civil Defense authorities a deep concern for the safety of our people in the event of aerial bombardment, we are convinced that the present concept of Civil Defense leads the population into a state of false security and to condition their minds to acceptance of the false idea of the inevitability of war.

In the light of the known facts of modern weaponry, we are concerned that our people should face the shocking truth declared by many top-flight American scientists, that in the event of nuclear war between 30 and 60 million men, women and children in the U.S. will be killed and a large number of those remaining alive will be most adversely affected by the long-range aftermath, confusion, probable complete disruption of public utilities, radio-active fallout and other consequences resulting from such an attack.

We do not find that C.D. faces these issues realistically, and we seriously question whether even an expanded C.D. program can be adequate in a nuclear age.

We place on record our deep conviction that Civil Defense is no defense, and that the only sure defense is a peace fostered by positive action by our nation working through the United Nations and its agencies, to alleviate the poverty, ignorance, disease and misery of two-thirds of the peoples of the world.

As Christians in a word, we seek reconciliation, and believe that only as that is accomplished will there be an end to cold war, as to all wars, and safety for people here and everywhere else.

3. The United Nations

a) Strengthening the United Nations and its agencies should be fully utilized, strengthened and improved through the inclusion of all fit nations within its membership. To be fully effective the U.N. must be given sufficient authority to enact and enforce world law against all forms of aggression and war. We urge our U.S. representatives in the U.N. to support every effort to re-

STUDY SECTION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

REVIEW OF THE YEAR'S WORK

The major emphasis in program work for the year has been a drive to organize commissions on Christian Social Concerns in local churches. At present 99 churches report organized commissions, and 68 make no report.

In the fall, a number of local churches participated in "get-out-the-vote" campaigns and in election forums on both local and national issues. Several churches invited candidates to address local church gatherings.

In cooperation with the Woman's Society of Christian Service, schools on Alcohol and Christian Responsibility have been held throughout the Conference. The Conference is indebted to Mr. Gordon Raney, Educational director of the Alcohol Education Committee of the State of Oregon, for his leadership and help with the study. The response to the approach to this problem made by Mr. Raney and his colleagues indicates something new in temperance work in the churches.

Great Decisions groups have met in some local churches and the Conference Secretary, Dan Taylor has participated in a weekly panel on television related to this program.

The Board has involved itself in a legislative program which has included the sending of resolutions to members of Congress and testifying before committees in the Oregon Legislature on such issues as capital punishment, civil defense and migrant work.

This is the first year the Board has operated under the form of organization uniting former Boards of World Peace, Temperance and Social and Economic Relations. During the year the Board has functioned as a unit under the able leadership of chairman, Howard Willits. The Board is grateful to Dan Taylor, former General Secretary of the Board of World Peace who has made his wide range of experience readily available to the Board and to the Conference.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS PEACE AND WORLD ORDER

1. Disarmament

We heartily commend the President's enlargement of the staff working on the vital subjects of arms' control and disarmament, and place on record our continuing conviction that disarmament, both nuclear and conventional, is essential for the prevention of war, for the continuance of the human race.

We place on record our further conviction that to spend over 56% of our national tax resources on defense and military security, which, when the cost of past wars, for which we are still paying, is added, amounts to 73.9% of our total budget, (a military expenditure of 4 million dollars per hour, the highest amount by far of any nation in the world) is immoral and wasteful in citizens and to tarnish the good name of the House of Representatives.

6. Compulsory R. O. T. C.

(Discipline p. 2024.6) We affirm that compulsory ROTC in public institutions is not in accord with good education. We commend those schools which seek the abolition of compulsory ROTC from their curricula.

"We reaffirm traditional Methodist opposition to any system of peacetime universal military training . . . We urge that voluntary methods of recruiting military manpower be developed that accord the individual the freedom of choice which should characterize peacetime civilian life." (Discipline, Par. 2024.6)

7. Cuba

We recognize the forces which kept President Batista in power and the conditions which led to the seizure of control by Fidel Castro. Chronic depression, extreme poverty, disease and illiteracy paved the way for widespread discontent, the dictatorship and communism. We further recognize the failure of Christendom to have alleviated the deplorable conditions during the 50 years of opportunity open to us prior to the advent of the Castro regime. We deplore the recent and extensive military support given by our government to the invasion of Cuba, thereby breaking several of our own laws and treaties. We hold the pledged word of our country to be sacred and inviolable including promises that we shall not "intervene, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatever, in the internal or external affairs of any other state."

We commend President Kennedy and warmly endorse him for his pronouncement, since the invasion, that the United States will not intervene in Cuba.

We condemn the brutal opportunism of Fidel Castro in bargaining machines for captives and believe the nations of the world will recognize the callous nature of his offer. Furthermore, we commend the present attempt in this country to ransom these hostages even at apparent political disadvantage.

We believe the time has come to make an entirely new approach to our island neighbor. We wish to place on record our conviction that a generous offer of various forms of technical and other assistance, with the object of raising considerably the standard of living of the Cuban people, might help heal the breach between us. Lovingkindness is better and more effective than military force. We believe democracy when put into practice will win over communism.

Finally, regardless of other considerations and in the "Spirit of 1776" we believe it is the right of the Cubans to decide their own political future.

TEMPERANCE AND GENERAL WELFARE

1. We recommend that we work toward the goal of the elimination of all slum-type housing.

2. We favor the conservation (using and saving) of our natural resources for this and future generations.

3. We believe a program should be devised to meet the medical needs of our senior citizens and others in need.

4. We wish to emphasize the work of the 1960 General Conference in the areas of sex exploitation and planned parenthood and urge Methodists of the Oregon Conference to heed the words of our General Conference. "We call upon our members to encourage and participate in community action to eliminate the distribution and sale of pornographic literature, films and amusements through voluntary and, where necessary, legislative means." "We affirm the principle that planned parenthood, practiced in Christian conscience, fulfills rather than violates the will of God."

5. We wish to have it known that statistics as related in Professor Jackson's book "Stumbling Block" indicate both a sharp decline of 12% of adults who drank in the period 1946-1958 and a slight decline in the number of adults who drink, while the nation as a whole showed its greatest rate of growth in history. We advocate total abstinence.

6. It should be further noted that whereas the number and percentage of drinkers has and is declining that the amount of alcohol consumed per person for a year's time has declined only about 1/10 of a gallon in the same period solve conflicts through conciliation and consistently to utilize every agency of the U.N. to that end.

b) Feeding the Hungry

We urge our government to continue to make possible the distribution of surplus food to the needy peoples of the world without regard to political affiliation and to utilize the agencies of the U.N. to this end.

We endorse the U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization's Freedom-from-Hunger Campaign and urge the member nations to provide and the U.N. to allocate appreciably far greater resources for the education of peoples, for research, for physical investment and for international leadership and co-ordination of effort.

We urge our members to show Christian concern by helping to feed the hungry peoples of the world through such organizations as Heifers for Relief, Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, Share Our Surplus, CARE, Overseas Relief, World Church Service, our missionary society, etc.

c) U. N. Membership

We place on record our conviction that the U.N. is inestimably weakened in its work for peace, disarmament and the rehabilitation of peoples, by the absence from its membership of any government. We, therefore, urge our U.S. State Department to support the application for membership of any nation which meets the requirements of the charter of the U.N.

d) Communication Across Frontiers

We further urge the U.S. State Dept., the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Church and our General Board of Christian Social Concerns to seek the unrestricted inter-change and free flow of ideas between all peoples and their governments, thus encouraging trade and the passage of the representatives of the press, the Church and of culture, both ways, through all "curtains" and across all frontiers. It is our conviction that the mutual understanding which is essential to peace will be fostered in this way.

e) The World Court

We affirm the action of the General Conference of the Methodist Church, which met in Denver, Colorado, in 1960 (p. p. 2024 section 4, final para. 1960 Discipline), wherein they resolved: "We support the greater use of the International Court of Justice and urge the U.S. to lead the way in removing restrictions which impair the Court's effectiveness."

4. Diplomatic Relations

We affirm our opposition to all totalitarian and dictatorial regimes but recognize the necessity of working agreements and such formal and diplomatic relations as are necessary for international well-being, world security and development.

We believe, therefore, that the public, including our Methodist people, has a duty to study and review continuously our relations, treaties and trade with all nations under dictatorships, whether those with which we now have diplomatic, military and trade relations or countries which we now officially regard as non-existent.

5. House Committee on Un-American Activities

We deplore and condemn certain activities of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, particularly for its part in the production and circulation of the alleged documentary film entitled "Operation Abolition," which was so edited as to misrepresent the facts of the incidents that actually occurred. Such procedure on the part of the Committee makes it guilty of the very evil of dishonesty practiced by the Communists whom it seeks to expose. It moreover maligns the character of the students participating in the demonstration, without giving them the opportunity to defend themselves. The vocal narration is at variance at several points with the events pictured.

In view of the fact that in all its hearings the Committee has produced no evidence of plots or conspiracies which were not already known, we join with Congressmen Ryan of New York, Roosevelt of California and Congresswoman Green of Oregon in urging the drastic reduction of the budget of the said Committee, so as to limit its power to embarrass our nation, to humiliate its Walter Act) be amended to the effect that aliens shall be subject to statute of limitations.

Death Penalty in Oregon

We recognize that we are involved in corporate sin and a society which often helps produce crime.

We firmly believe in the right to life of every created human being in God's universe, and believe in his individual value in God's and Man's sight.

The death penalty has not proved a deterrent to crime in states and countries where it is practiced.

We hold that persons are capable of chance under the power of God's redeeming love and mercy. Therefore, be it resolved that every Methodist and every Methodist Church work for the abolition of capital punishment in the State of Oregon. We commend the efforts of the Legislative Assembly to refer this matter to the citizenry, and we hope that the people called Methodists will work with the same zeal and valor.

COMMUNISM AND SELF-APPOINTED ANTI-COMMUNISTS

The Methodist Church adopted its Social Creed in 1908, and for more than half a century, it has reiterated our opposition to materialistic ideologies. Par. 2024, Sec. 6 of the Discipline states "The Christian religion stands in direct opposition to materialistic ideologies . . ."

In his recent address, "Christianity Challenges Communism" Bishop A. Raymond Grant applies our position to contemporary problems by carefully and incisively listing the differences between Christianity and Communism. We suggest a thoughtful perusal of the Bishop's statement and recommend that it be printed and widely circulated among our congregations. The divergence between the gospel with its methods of love and Marxism with its atheism, totalitarian control, class warfare and ruthlessness of method has made it impossible for Communism to make any appreciable inroad into the churches of the United States of America.

The Methodist Church stands solidly for freedom, civil liberties and the protection of civil rights. We view with equal concern forces either of the extreme left or the extreme right which threaten these liberties, annul democratic processes and employ undemocratic means to gain their ends. We note that both extremes are willing to use force and violence against constituted authority and the government in power as witness Laos on the one hand and Algeria on the other hand, or recent vigilante methods in Birmingham, Alabama and Jackson, Mississippi.

We affirm that to spread suspicion, utilize insinuations and smear tactics, and similar methods by any persons or groups clearly abdicates responsible participation and any rightful leadership in our democracy. Such actions appeal to force and hate; Christianity appeals to reason and love. The methods of Jesus and such practices move in different directions. The influence of the church must therefore always be on the side of truth, integrity, liberty and justice. In times rife with spurious substitutes for spiritual values, we call Oregon Methodists, both laymen and clergy, to affirm the values of mutual trust, good will and love.

METHODIST CONCERN FOR SOCIAL ACTION

We wish to make clear that Oregon Methodists do have a Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns composed of members selected in representative fashion which is responsible to the Oregon Annual Conference and under its authority. We rejoice in the progress being made in the expression of our Christian Social Concerns by our Conference Board.

We call to the attention of our people that the Methodist Federation for Social Action is and always has been an unofficial voluntary agency, not related to this Conference or to the Methodist Church at large. We particularly disavow relationship with the Oregon chapter of the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

(1946-1958). The foregoing facts appear to indicate that the alcohol industry is increasingly being supported by problem drinkers and alcoholics.

7. We recognize the need for the observance of a weekly Family Day for rest, recreation and worship.

We call the attention of Methodists to para. 2022.6 of 1960 Discipline and urge them to exert every effort to conduct their lives in harmony with this statement.

8. We recommend that all products of a potentially harmful nature including but not limited to alcohol and tobacco and which are intended for human use and consumption be clearly labelled with reference to its possible harmful and deleterious effects.

HUMAN RELATIONS AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

Race Relations

We urge our Methodists to work actively in home, church, at work and in the community to elminate attitudes of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin or social status.

We commend those persons, organizations, actions and legislators actively pursuing courses of action to this end. In particular, we commend the Greater Portland Council of Churches for promotion of the open occupancy housing covenant and recommend this action in other communities.

We offer whole-hearted support to the Oregon legislature in making it unlawful for persons selling goods or services to discriminate because of race or religion.

We urge a careful study by local Christian Social Concerns Commissions of the implications of promoting race relations in view of the wide-spread view point that integration means inter-racial marriage.

We anticipate with pleasure the year 1964 when churches of the Japanese Provisional Conference in Portland and Hood River come into full fellowship in the Oregon Annual Conference.

Church-State Relations

We urge our people to continue to study and to be vigilant on issues concerning separation of church and state.

We oppose the diversion of tax funds to the support of private or sectarian schools.

We commend in general the efforts of POAU (Protestants and other Americans United for Separation of Church and State) to preserve the principle of separation of church and state and express our Christian concern about sectarian bitterness, violence, bigotry and hate, regardless of the source.

We request, the Methodists particularly in reference to the financing of our institutions, to make a critical study and analysis of our use of government financing to ensure that our practice conforms to our position of respecting the separation of church and state.

Industrial Relations

Plans are well under way for the Industrial Relations Conference to be held at a later date in Portland. We solicit the support of our pastors and laymen for this greatly-needed conference.

Political Activity

We recommend that the people called Methodist put their words into action by supporting and expressing appreciation for those products from the entertainment media and publishing houses which are in harmony with Christian standards.

We believe education of migrant children is their right and our concern and must be met by a concerted effort of our state and Federal governments. Therefore, we urge our representatives to formulate such an educational program as will meet this need. While we approve state program for migrant education, we believe the most good will come from a combined state and Federal program.

We urge that the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 (McCarran-

C. Division of Peace and World Order

1. Integrate the study on peace and world order into the ongoing educational program of the local church.

2. Promote serious discussion and study of sound economic steps or policies to achieve throughout the state of Oregon, and the other states, national growth and full employment during arms limitation and subsequent steps toward disarmament.

3. Each commission and congregation to participate in the peace study program to be emphasized by the National Division.

STUDY SECTION
MISSIONS

MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Introduction:

The mission of the Church is the total aspect of the life of Christ — preaching — teaching — healing. It is here and overseas — is is a TOTAL MISSION. Only 30% of the world's population is Christian, but if the population and the Church continue to increase at their present rate, the percentage of Christians in 1975 will be only 20%. We need a clear idea of MISSION at home and abroad. The Board of Missions and Church Extension in its meetings, its planning, and in the execution of its duty has made every effort to keep this idea in mind.

It is with thanks for a year of progress and in anticipation of a great forward movement that we submit this report.

Meetings:

The following meetings were held during the year:

4 Executive meetings: June 20, Sept. 6, Oct. 1, Jan. 4.

3 General meetings: June 3, Oct. 1, Jan. 23.

SECTION II — Mission Aid (Pastoral maintenance) recommended by the Board to the Division of National Missions for the year beginning June 1, 1961.

RECOMMENDED PROGRAM OR EMPHASIS FOR 1961-62
CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS
I GENERAL GOALS OR EMPHASES

1. Develop a closer working relationship between our Board and other suitable agencies in the state and Conference who are working in similar areas. The coordinated effort in the alcohol studies illustrates the possibilities.

2. Provide a significant training opportunity for all members of the Conference Board.

3. Aid in the organization of an active Commission on Christian Social Concerns in each local church with sufficient personnel and a regular meeting time.

4. Recommend a basic kit of helpful materials for each local church Commission to include at least one copy of the "The Methodist Story" and "Concern" plus manuals for each Commission member.

5. Provide a training opportunity for the local church commission chairman at least once each year.

6. Encourage and assist the local commission to:
   a. Observe, in cooperation with the pastor, one disciplinary special day each quarter (except the summer quarter);
   b. Plan and carry out at least one significant committee or neighborhood project;
   c. Plan and carry out one significant project relating to world interests and affairs outside the parish;
   d. Distribute to congregations copies of the Social Creed of the Methodist Church.

7. To participate in the Western Regional Briefing Conference in Salt Lake City, Sept 19-21, 1961.

II. SPECIFIC GOALS OR EMPHASES

A. Division of Temperance and General Welfare

1. Endorse and support the work of the Oregon Council of Alcohol Problems.
2. Promote the observance of Commitment Day in each local church.
3. Promote wider use of audio visuals available from the Conference office.
4. Call attention to the urgency for study and action as indicated by the General Conference when it adopted the following: "We urge our churches to institute courses of study for young people regarding Christian attitudes toward sex and personality growth. We call upon our members to encourage and participate in community action to eliminate the distribution and sale of pornographic literature, films, and amusements through voluntary and where necessary, legislative mean" . . . The Methodist Discipline, 1960, para. 2022 (5),

B. Division of Human Relations and Economic Affairs

1. Give top priority to our Industrial Relations Conference to be held in Portland.

2. Stimulate and awaken the Social Conscience on personal and public morality, both within and outside the church, and its relation to juvenile delinquency and crime in general. We further call special attention to section 56 of the Oregon Juvenile Law which makes it mandatory for the Judge of the Juvenile Court to create a Juvenile Council in any county with a population in excess of 10,000 persons. Such a council may be formed in counties of less than 10,000 population. This Council has wide scope in study and recommendations relative to juvenile crime and the prevention of it. We urge Methodists to become familiar with its possibilities.

3. Continue study and action to the end that all Race Relations may be Christlike.

4. Promote a program of education for children of migrant workers.

5. Continue study and action on the problems growing out of the employment of large numbers of migrant workers in our state.

6. To cooperate with other concerned groups and individuals working for the abolition of the death penalty.

SECTION III — Grants and loans received from the National Board during the year 1960-61.

We are happy to report that the following grants and loans were made during the year 1960-61 by the National Board:

	Loan	Grant
Garden Home	$35,000	$5,000
Madras	35,000	5,000

"Thus, for the 1960-61 Conference Year Oregon Churches received National Board of Missions grants (donations) totaling $20,000.00, loans amounting to $105,000.00 and Mission Aid (Pastoral Maintenance) in the sum of $12,733.00. During the same period that Oregon Churches contributed $23,569.00 to the National Board; the Board contributed $32,733.00 to Oregon Churches, plus $105,000.00 in low interest rate new loans which are saving Oregon Churches thousands of dollars in interest payments. It is further to be noted that while Oregon contributed $53,484.00 to the entire World Missions and National Missions program of Methodism, the National Board contributed $32,733.00 to Mission Work in Oregon. Surely, we can say, World Service comes back home.

CONCLUSION

1. We are deeply grateful to the churches of the Conference for their support of the Expansion Fund whereby assistance will be given to our Church Extension Section, and we are also grateful for the money that is used as a revolving loan fund. This greatly facilitates the purchasing of new sites and the helping of new causes.
2. We are also ready to encourage new work and to help those who with faith and vision step out into new areas with the hope that someday Methodism will have a church there. The lines of policy in connection with such expansion may be found on page 101 of the 1960 Journal.
3. We rejoice that the Board has been able to purchase for future use a tract of land in Northwest Eugene of 4.21 acres on a corner with a frontage of 500 feet, for the new Asbury church. The total cost was $10,525, $2,700 of which has been paid as down payment. A tract of land at Gladstone has also been purchased for a similar purpose.
4. We are persuaded that we must put forth every possible effort to meet the needs of the "Population Explosion" through which the State will pass in the next few years. We pray that hope and courage may be given to many who will take part in our advance.
5. In concluding this report we give thanks for the able leadership of Bishop A. Raymond Grant. We are also thankful to Dr. Allen B. Rice, Executive Secretary of the Division of National Missions for his continued support of our work, and to Dr. Charles A. Nowlen, Western Jurisdiction Director of the Division of National Missions (section on Church Extension) for his helpfulness. We take pleasure in expressing our thanks to the Rev. Meredith A. Groves for his untiring help as Executive Secretary for the Board, to Mr. Norman Amtower who does a splendid job as treasurer and to the four district superintendents for their continual alertness to our needs and their desire to see our Church grow. It is a privilege to share in this much needed work for our Church.

Request that the annual item of $50,000 be continued for Church Extension and that it be apportioned to the charges as a supplemental budget item figured solely on the "grade figure". The money is to be divided equally between a revolving loan fund and actual grants in need for church extension. Any church may designate not more than 50% of its contribution to any of the conference church extension advance special projects. The other 50% must go into the revolving loan fund.

SECTION V — Recommendations

Your Conference Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Coordinating Council promote Missionary Institutes in the Districts and that this missionary training take place early in the year.
2. That our Conference cooperate with the North-West International Missionary Conference to be held at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, B.C. August 23-28, 1961 and that ministers and chairmen of commissions on Missions be asked to attend.
3. That a missionary film on a Church-wide study be purchased for use by the local churches; this film to be handled by the Audio-Visual Dept. of the Conference.
4. That the Minimum Salary Schedule in accordance with Conference Rule 5.005 (Section 4-A) be as follows:

In full connection	$3,400
On Trial	3,300
Approved supply	2,800
Married	600 additional
Each dependent child	200 additional

Each Church in excess of one Church $100 additional

*Student minister

*(Qualifying of charges served by students as "Conference Charges" shall be left to the discretion of the District Superintendent. A student minister shall not receive more than one-half of the approved supply schedule. Additional compensation for being married, children, and additional churches does not apply to student ministers.)

5. It is recommended that the Commission on Missions of each local church obtain full information on the Methodist Investment Fund and that members of each congregation be acquainted with this Fund as an opportunity to make a sound investment. This is to help meet the urgent church extension needs of Methodism. (See Commission on Missions Manual, p. 54) We also request that this Fund be called to the attention of our pastors through a conference mailing.

Our basic goal is to communicate the sense and urgency of Christ's mission to each church in the Conference and help that church to reach every part of their constituency with this concern. To this end we recommend early and thorough training for Commission Chairmen and members in each district and sub-district and see a closer cooperation between District Superintendents and Secretaries and the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild, and Church School with fourth Sunday observance and extended sessions, Methodist Men, Trafco and Audiovisual headquarters.

We seek your prayers and participation in the mission of the church believing in the validity of the truths outlined in the Manual, that "The Missionary impulse is inherent in the Christian Gospel." "The Mission of the Christian church is to witness for Christ everywhere." "Our calling is to be faithful to our witness."

Oregon Conference Missionary Secretary

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES OF OREGON, INC.

It is a pleasure to give you the following report of Goodwill's activities in this phase of our Church's missionary program. Organized here in Portland in 1927 under the auspices of the City Church Extension Society, Goodwill Industries of Oregon—now in its 34th year of helping handicapped people help themselves—counts 11,533 men and women served during those past years. During 1960, remarkable gains were made in every aspect of the program, retaining a high position within the top 10 of the nation's 126 Goodwills. Some of the factors bearing on the achievement of this fine record last year are detailed below.

A record total of 792 persons were served during 1960, an increase of 12% over the previous year. This is an average of 350 persons per day, 10% of whom graduated into better situations. The number of man-hours of work given rose to 701,000 hours, again almost 12% over 1959. Wages paid increased 16% to $668,000. From these wages, Goodwill workers paid income taxes to state and federal governments and social security payments of some $89,000. The handicapped employees of Goodwill take considerable pride in this accomplishment—in their ability to pay taxes rather than use tax moneys in the form of state public welfare assistance, which would be the case were they not employed. At year's end, a classification of the handicaps of Goodwill employees and trainees indicate that 47% suffered orthopedic or organic disabilities; 14% emotional and mental impairments; 16% were aged, infirm or had general ailments; 10% were handicapped by speech, hearing or visual defects; and 13% were non-handicapped supervisory or trucking employees.

The program of evaluation and training, in cooperation with the state Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, improves as it progresses. None of the 74 persons participating in the program during 1960 were employable when they began the evaluation and training cycle. But, at the completion of training, one-third moved out into regular competitive employment and some severely handicapped were employed by Goodwill. Begun in 1957, 268 persons have benefited from participation in this specialized portion of Goodwill's rehabilitation program.

Plans were completed in 1960 for the establishment of a Eugene branch operation of Goodwill to serve the handicapped people of that area of Oregon. A lease has been taken, equipment is being purchased and installed, and the branch plant will begin operation about April 1, 1961. Ten or twelve handicapped persons are expected to be employed at the beginning. This is the first such branch Goodwill Industries of Oregon has launched and we pray for its success.

The association of youth groups with Goodwill, and their integration into the organization as volunteers, continued during 1960 with fine results on both sides. About 36,000 Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls

OREGON CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SECRETARY

To be responsible for the Missionary education and cultivation of the Methodists of the Oregon Conference has brought me moments of high inspiration and mind and heart stretching. One becomes frustrated when faced with the urgency of passing on these experiences to you, the pastors and laymen of the Conference. I owe much to the wise counsel and devoted work of the District Secretaries and Meredith Groves and his staff.

A brief summary of specific accomplishments and activities of your Secretaries would include the following:

All Secretaries attended the Second Annual Pacific Northwest International Missionary Conference at Tacoma, Wash. They recommend that local Pastors and Chairmen of Commissions be urged to attend this year's Conference to be held at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 23-28. Your Conference Sec. also attended a fall Jurisdictional Briefing Conference in San Francisco.

The Christian Mission Digest was sent to every Pastor as was the monthly Missionary Minutes. Widespread study of the new manual took place in the local churches and at the Churchmanship Schools. The color film, "Household of Faith," was purchased and has been circulated from the Conference Audio-visual office. A revised list of missionary speakers was not completed this year but we have called attention to the excellent lists in the Conference Journal and the Year Book of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild.

A fruitful and far-reaching effort was made to cooperate with the Woman's Society of Christian Service and others in the Alcohol study and in the training of Mission study leadership.

We have promoted the use of the World Outlook and the Prayer Calendar, assisted in the production of a brochure on Advance Specials and encouraged community-wide kick-off programs to promote the world-wide mission study, Into All the World Together.

Travel Funds, Scholarships for Negro Girls, and United Church Women of Oregon.

Unrecorded by our treasurer are the thousands of dollars contributed by local societies to the work of local churches and communities in the name of the Master. Likewise we have no estimate of the countless hours of service which have been given by members thru the year in visitation, fellowship activities, cooking, serving, nursing care, etc.

The outreach of the local Woman's Societies and Wesleyan Service Guild in the area of Christian Social Relations has included work with Migrant families, assistance with refugee families, visitation of Nursing Homes and hospitals, sponsoring UNICEF trick or treat programs at Halloween, study of legislative issues, sponsoring of a citizenship class for aliens, promotion of study groups following the White House Conference on Children and Youth.

Work with the Commission on Christian Vocations is carried on by the Secretaries of Student Work and Missionary Personnel of the Conference Society. They have worked with Directors of Student Work on campuses and have tried to channel to local students information on educational opportunities as well as needs in the area of Christian vocations. In the area of youth work, many local women have given unnumbered hours of leadership to the youth program in the local churches. Mrs. Carl Mason attended the meeting in Nashville in October of Conference Youth Directors and Secretaries of Youth Work. We look forward to greater effectiveness thru greater understanding in this area.

The Western Jurisdiction Woman's Society Meeting in Phoenix, Arizona, in February, 1961, was attended by sixteen Oregon women. At this meeting five were elected to positions of responsibility in the Jurisdiction—Mrs. E. M. Tilton, president; Mrs. George V. Fallis, treasurer; Mrs. Henry Haines, secretary of mission service in the Home Field; Mrs. P. Malcolm Hammond, secretary of missionary personnel; and Mrs. Charles Adamson, chairman of spiritual life for the Wesleyan Service Guild.

As we approach the end of the year we are confident that the efforts of the Wesleyan Service Guild will liquidate the indebtedness on the Louise Bunch-Beulah Faber Memorial Chapel at the Methodist Home in Salem. Plans are under way for the dedication of this beautiful and meaningful room. Three generous gifts plus many hours of volunteer labor have given the chapel comfortable theatre seats and a beautiful spinet piano which makes it a completed project. The Endowment Drive for the Home is well underway with solicitation for individual gifts being made under the directorship of Mr. W. P. Walter. With a goal of $500,000 for this drive, the societies solicit the prayers and concern of every member of the church for this most worthwhile endeavor.

Oregon Conference has had the joy of knowing Miss Edna Holder this year as she has visited our societies and churches with her message of the work in India. Miss Holder was retired at the meeting of the Jurisdiction Society after 37 years of service. We rejoice that in June, Miss Margaret Martin of Portland, will be commissioned as a missionary to Korea. We have joyously accepted her support.

Membership in societies and Guilds has reflected two sociological trends —moving population and employment of women outside the home. We have begun a series of studies and experiments to evaluate and revise our program in the light of these two facts. For while our over-all membership shows a slight gain, we shudder at the number of members lost. These are women whom we need and who need the spiritual enrichment, the warm and stimulating fellowship, and the great challenge of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild as we seek to witness and to serve.

Mrs. Russell O. Watson,
President, Oregon Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service

TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Both the National Council of Churches of Christ in America and the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church consider as town and country last year helped Goodwill in productive projects within their capabilities and under the supervision of their adult leaders.

The great public concern for the rehabilitation work of Goodwill Industries is reflected in the record contributions of more than a half million bagsful of clothing and house furnishings collected from 100,000 homes and stores in 1960. Our Church has been an important factor in providing these materials which are the very lifeblood of Goodwill's rehabilitation plan. The churches of the Conference, during 1960, in 231 separate efforts collected 2,551 bagsful, or the equivalent, of materials and received Conference special credits in the total amount of $7,653. All of these materials after repair and renovation by our handicapped workers were sold to produce the money needed to meet all operating costs which, of course, include wages. We must remind you, however, we are still dependent upon gifts and bequests for the capital funds needed to provide buildings in which and the machinery with which to work. For every dollar given to Goodwill's capital fund during 1960 $28 were returned to the handicapped workers in wages and services, truly a remarkable return; but greater than this is the human value—the imparting of a fine sense of independence, dignity and self-reliance in the handicapped man or woman who goes daily to a job with head held high.

Continuance of the resolution adopted by the 1957 Conference recognizing Goodwill's need for materials and whereby individual churches would receive Conference special credit for materials they collected, is recommended. Goodwill Industries will continue to arrange for the transport of the materials to its plant as well as to handle the mechanics of crediting the church concerned.

Recogizing that no rehabilitation is complete without the choice by an individual of a faith of his own choosing, Goodwill Industries conducts a 30 minute chapel service twice weekly on company time, attendance optional. Ministers of all denominations are invited to conduct a devotional type of service for the inspiration of all workers representative of more than 20 denominations and all three faiths.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The year which began in June 1960 recorded several "firsts" for the Oregon Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service. The first of these was the entertaining for the Jurisdiction School of Missions at Pacific University at Forest Grove, June 27 thru July 1. The four courses presented there were taught at the Conference School at Camp Magruder to a record number of women. Over 220 registrants were in classes studying "Basic Christian Beliefs," "Into All the World Together," "Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions," and "Christian Responsibility and the Alcohol Problem." As this report is prepared statistics on study classes completed in local churches are far from complete, but some trends can be seen which indicate better informed women as a result of this program. Of particular value was the course on "Christian Responsibility and the Alcohol Problem," for the 44 members of that class who studied with Mr. Gordon Raney of the Oregon State Alcohol Education Committee and returned to local churches determined that this great social problem must be faced and that church-wide studies should be held. With outstanding cooperation with Commissions of Education, Missions, and Christian Social Concerns, these classes have been given. Particular interest has been shown by parents of teen-agers and members of youth groups.

The responsibility of the Conference Woman's Societies and Wesleyan Service Guilds for the great program of missions of the Woman's Division of the Board of Missions is felt in the pledge of $69,500 to this work, including cultivation. This is an increase of $2,000 for the coming year. In addition the societies have accepted goals of $4,225 for Conference Projects—Linnton Community Center, the Methodist Home, Migrant Ministry, Youth and Student sponsored a town and country church conference at Tillamook last February the fourth such biennial conference. The next conference of this type is scheduled to be held at Madras during the first week of February, 1963.

We would call special attention to the Western jurisdictional Town and Country Conference which is to be held in Oregon some time in 1962. Oregon Methodists ought to support and attend this conference, for it is planned with the problems and opportunities in mind which are unique to Methodism in the western states.

The commission expresses its deep appreciation for the very special interest given by Bishop Grant and the members of his cabinet and for their generous help and cooperation.

Burton C. Bastuscheck
Chairman

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The Western Jurisdictional meeting of The Board of Hospitals and Homes was held in Portland November 10, 11, 12, 13, at Rose Villa. On the final day of the meeting, Dr. Olin Oeschger, General Secretary of the N.A.M.H.H., delivered the address at the Dedication of Rose Villa. In the coming year, the Jurisdictional meeting will be held at the Rogue Valley Manor.

In addition to these two retirement homes, Willamette View Manor is also located within the state. All of the homes have official ties to the N.A.M.H.H. but not to the Oregon Annual Conference. On Jan. 23rd, 1961 at the meeting of the Conference Board of Hospital and Homes, Rev. J. C. Johannes and Rev. Dwight Townsen were appointed to pursue a fact finding study relative to the possibility of these homes having some official tie to the Oregon Annual Conference. This study is to be carried on with the cooperation of the Administrators of these homes who have indicated an interest.

Through the cooperation of the District Superintendents each local church has appointed a Hospital and Welfare Steward. The plan is for an active program to reach every local church.

The Board of Hospitals and Homes recommends that a study be made on a working relationship between the Willamette View Manor, Rogue Valley Manor, Oregon Senior Citizens, and Riverview Hospital.

REPORT OF DEACONESS BOARD

Officers:

President: Mrs. Verne D. Bain
Vice-President: Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane
Sec-Treas: Mrs. W.S. Ankney

Members of the Board:

Officers, members of the Cabinet, Mrs. Chas. Howard, Mrs. Henry Haines, Mrs. Verne Hanna, Mrs. W.W. Yancy, Rev. Meredith Groves, Rev. Eugene Hamblen, active Deaconesses, ministers of churches where Deaconesses serve, coordinating representative from conference Vocations Commission.

Report:

At present Oregon conference has no active Deaconesses and none in the process of training. Much interest has been created thru the wide showing of the film "Make All Things New" which was purchased by the Woman's Society of Christian Service and circulated through the conference to Women's, Youth and other church groups.

Two retired Deaconesses live in Portland.

Some recruitment may be expected in this area in the not too distant all population centers of not more than 10,000 people. This classification indicates that the majority of Oregon Methodist churches belong in this category. In addition to these congregations, one will find many urban churches within our conference whose membership includes a number of rural people.

The church is becoming increasingly aware of new changes in every community. We are all aware of the influence of increased urbanization which reaches to almost everyone regardless of his place of residence. The church's task is to minister to people wherever they might live. Emerging patterns of population distribution necessitate emerging patterns in the program of the church.

Throughout all of Methodism, there is an increased awareness of our need for looking upon geographic areas as the proper bases for setting up the program of the church. The age-old concept of station appointments as over against circuits, is desperately in need of re-examination. Today we must think in terms of the area and the people who need to be served. Structures of church administration must today be considered in the light of the emerging patterns. The concept that some appointments are "better" than others needs to be reconsidered. We must stop regarding churches of pastors as second rate because of their geography. The fundamental criterian should be the basic needs of church and community. This will mean that every charge can be a "good" charge.

The need for a new concept is imperative. We must think in terms of the pastor's work load, as well as in terms of the distribution of the lay men's responsibilities. This will mean that no one pattern of pastoral appointment can be the answer for every community. If the Oregon Conference is to meet its responsibility to the Oregon people, then there will undoubtedly be some station appointments, some two or three joint circuits, some group ministries, some larger parishes, and perhaps even other types of appointments. More churches will need to enlarge their horizons to include nearby communities. Some stronger churches will need to provide lay leadership, and perhaps pastoral leadership for weaker churches.

New congregations, and perhaps new "cells" will need to be begun in places which are now unchurched.

The extending of our horizons will need to be not only geographical but sociological as well. The Methodist Church has a mission to today's world which ought to include people from every walk and station of life.

The time has come for provincialism in the church to cease. The town and country commission dare not be concerned with merely a segment of the church. Together with the newly established commission on urban work, we must stand ready to look at the new opportunities and challenges to Oregon Methodism.

In facing the needs and opportunities of Methodists, your commission on town and country work stands ready to be of service. We have already given assistance in several church and community studies and we continue to be available for such help in so far as time and ability permit. We stand ready to help the Bishop and the District Superintendents to make necessary adjustments in charge boundaries and structures so as to have a more effective church program. We urge town churches and country churches to recognize their interdependence and to work accordingly.

We reaffirm our willingness to cooperate with the town and country committee of the Oregon Council of Churches and are pleased to report that the annual town and country church conferences are to be resumed at Oregon State University in October, 1961. We further urge both ministers and laymen to plan to attend this very helpful conference.

We express concern that Methodism in our conference has been able to reach and serve proportionately only about one-half as many rural people as urban people. This becomes a serious matter when we realize that most of the state's population continues to be in town and country. Across the nation most recruits for full time church vocations continue to come from town and country congregations. In view of this fact as well as others, we need to be deeply concerned that this segment of our population shall have an opportunity to hear the message of Christ and to respond to His invitation to Christian discipleship.

This commission, along with the conference Methodist Rural Fellowship ministrations of many individuals and groups;

Whereas Dr. Laurence Nye, Dr. Ernest Harold, Mr. Arshad Haqq, Mrs. Janet Bennett and others of the staff of the host church have been so hospitable and helpful;

Whereas a large number of faithful laymen of First Methodist Church have spent many hours and much effort in making arrangements not only for the smooth running of the Conference but also in providing housing and other needed items for our comfort and entertainment . . . .

Chairman of Entertainment and Arrangements Committee
Mrs. Charles B. Carpenter
Co-Chairmen of Registration Committee — Mrs. Henry Meyer and Mrs. Paul Mielly
Tickets — Mrs. J. Harold Ziegler and Mr. Meredith Groves
Dining Room Chairman — Mrs. Robert S. Elder
Room Assignments — Norman Amtower
Ushers — Mr. George Montgomery
Flower — Mrs. Harlan Smith
Custodians — Victor Walter and Bill Dayton and a large number of lay workers who assisted in the dining room and in other areas of Conference Activities;

Whereas the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Wesleyan Service Guild, Methodist Men, and other service groups of the church made service their first objective to all who have attended the Conference;

Whereas we have been richly blessed through the music of the choir of our host church and profoundly stirred through the way the organist, Lauren B. Sykes, has played for us;

Whereas the organist and Mrs. Laurence Nye deepened our appreciation of good music through their presentation of a concert;

Whereas Lincoln High School, First Presbyterian Church, and First Christian Church have graciously opened their doors to us and served meals;

Whereas Bishop W. Ralph Ward has challenged our minds, inspired our hearts, and set before us vividly, the "more excellent way" through his presentations;

Whereas Bishop A. Raymond Grant has continued to exert the type of dynamic and disciplined leadership in presiding over the sessions of conference, leading in the morning devotionals, counseling wth both ministers and laymen, and otherwise giving a good accounting of his stewardship as a minister of Jesus Christ, not only during the Conference session but throughout the past year;

Whereas Meredith A. Groves, Coordinating Council Executive and Mr. Norman Amtower, Conference Treasurer, and the other members of the Conference staff have been efficient and untiring in their efforts to be good servants of the Master;

Whereas this Conference session through debate and discussion has proposed some bold and exemplary plans for the year which lies ahead;

Be it therefore resolved that the members of the 109th Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist Church go on record expressing our genuine gratitude and appreciation for these blessings, kindnesses, and courtesies which have contributed to the enrichment of our fellowship together.

Respectfully submitted,
T. Askew Crumbley, Chairman

HEIFER PROJECT INC.

To Conference Members:

These shipments of animals by Heifer Project went to 22 different countries where we shared with other families, missionaries and 4-H Clubs.

Cattle	340
Milk Goats	300
Pigs	90
Rabbits	70
Baby Chicks	41,000
Hatching eggs	1,800

The majority of the chicks went to Haiti. We still hope to ship fifteen to twenty thousand more to this poverty stricken country. The Methodist, along with other churches, are doing a splendid work there. Our government through International Cooperation Administration, is paying the transportation costs and also helping in technical aid as to care in poultry work and other animals being sent there. The churches are active in agriculture, medicine, education, sanitation and dietetics. Ninety per cent of the people work in agriculture, and the land is very poor. The average annual income is about $75.00 to a family. We have sent over 33,000 chicks to Haiti.

Here is a list of other countries where we have current poultry projects: Ecuador, to missionaries; Nepal, poultry development under U.S. direction; Nigeria, mission project; Liberia, mission project; Jordan, mission project; India, mission project; Mexico, 4-H Clubs and missions.

Rev. Wendell B. Kramer, Santa Cruz, Bolivia, a Methodist missionary and Heifer Project representative, has sent in a call for 3,200 chicks, 600 hatching eggs, 250 milk goats, 25 sheep, 15 pigs, 30 rabbits and 26 head of Brown Swiss and Jersey cattle. The complete request totals $26,535.00. Wendell is doing a splendid work there as agricultural missionary.

Here are projects where your gifts keep on giving. In ten years time the increase is about 500 per cent. Where can one's gift do more in relief and rehabilitation. Also there is the other angle — that of the good will expressed and how badly we need it in the world today. One of our refugees in Europe said after receiving his heifer . . . "It takes a lot of love to give away a cow."

We want to thank the Sunday Schools of the Methodist Church for their constant interest. They have done much for the chick projects. Also to the ministers, the directors of religious education, the teachers and pupils. And, of course, to Bishop Grant, our very fine friend.

Sincerely,
David E. Norcross
Northwest Director

REPORT OF STUDY SECTION ON MISSIONS

The conference is reminded of the quadrennial church-wide OUR MISSION TODAY emphasis. Although the primary involvement is scheduled for the last year of the quadrennium, we recommend the use of the preliminary printed material and the filmstrip, "The Factors That Confront Us" which is available from the Audio-visual library.

Expression of appreciation was made to Clark Enz, President of the Conference Board of Missions, for his leadership during the past year.

Respectfully submitted
Marney Allen, Sec.

IN MEMORIAM

OBITUARIES FROM MEMORIAL SERVICE OF OREGON CONFERENCE 1961

Members of the Conference

CHARLES C. RARICK

(April 7, 1870 — October 23, 1960)

Rev. C. C. Rarick was born in Osceola, Iowa on April 7, 1870. He received his education in Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas and Denver University. His first pastorate was a circuit in Cowley County, Kansas and was comprised of six churches. He preached at three of these churches every other Sunday. From there he served in Colorado, coming to Oregon in 1906 where he was pastor at Astoria. In 1910 he came to Portland as pastor of the Mount Tabor Methodist church. Two years later he became pastor of the Central Methodist Church. He then served with the Board of Temperance of the Methodist Church out of Washington, D.C. In 1922 he was appointed Conference Evangelist of the Portland District. In 1925 he was appointed to Fremont Street Methodist Church which was during the time of their building program for the present building. He also served churches in Grants Pass and Newberg. In 1934 he was appointed to Mount Tabor again. He retired from the ministry in 1936.

In April 1956 Rev. and Mrs. Rarick celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Rarick passed away in May 1956. Rev. Rarick was a member of the Masonic Lodge for 60 years, being affiliated with Oregon Lodge A.F. and A.M. No. 101.

He is survived by five children: Joseph S. Rarick, Newberg, Oregon; William M. Rarick, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Grace Althauser of Centralia, Wn.; Mrs. Alice Derse, Lake Oswego, Oregon; and Mrs. Dorothy Carney, Portland; one sister, Mrs. Lilly Carter of Enid, Olkahoma.

LILLY-ELLEN (LEE) SMITH

(August 18, 1930 — May 2, 1961)

A tragic accident on May 2, 1961, took the life of Lee Smith. She, with her 4-year old daughter, Ellen, was en route to Nehalem to attend a sub-district W.S.C.S. meeting when her car plunged down an 80' embankment. Ellen was unhurt.

The pages of this book could not contain all Lee had accomplished in her 30 years. She was born in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., received her high school education in Lowell, Mass., graduating with honors, and was graduated from Boston University.

It was while she was attending Boston U. that she met and married Nevitt B. Smith on Sept. 20, 1951. To them Brenton and Ellen were born.

Lee's beautiful voice will ever be remembered by those for whom she so willingly sang. Her most unique quality perhaps was her tender, loving way which bespoke of sincere friendship to all with whom she came in contact. She will be greatly missed in the Oregon Conference.

In addition to her husband and two children, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons of Milwaukie, Oregon, and her sister, Dorothy Ragosine of Sandy Hook, Conn., and her husband's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, First Church, Salem.

DORIS ALBERTA BURGOYNE

(June 8, 1901 — May 21, 1961)

Doris Alberta Burgoyne was born in Helena, Montana. She served forty years in the Methodist ministry with her husband, member of Rose City Park

He was a fine, dependable layworker and what was said of him in relation to his public school work, can also be said as to his association in the church: "He was a rock of sanity surmounted by a spire of idealism."
